Police Arrest Youths After Wild Chase

A wild auto chase early last Thursday ended in the arrest of two Pontiac youths on charges of breaking and entering in the night-time.

Frank Stadler, 17, and his cousin, Delbert Stadler, 18, were taken into custody after crashing into a four-foot fence, a drinking fountain and the side of Baldwin Elementary School at Chester and W. Maple.

Officers Norman Probst and Jerry Roddowig apprehended the youths after firing two warning shots as they fled on foot.

ACCORDING TO Birmingham Police, the youths burglarized Carroll's Standard Service at Cranbrook and W. Maple of about $50 in change.

The youths waived examination before Municipal Judge John C. Emery Jr. Friday and were bound over to Circuit Court on $2,500 bonds each for arraignment Nov. 20.

The youths, who were sentenced only two weeks ago to two years probation after admitting a dozen auto thefts and six burglaries in the Pontiac area, were on their way to Florida in a car stolen from Pontiac.

THE BIRMINGHAM chase began after a resident notified police about 4 a.m. of a suspicious car with two youths in it parked near Carroll's station. Police arrived at the scene as the youths were fleeing.

According to deputies, the youths admitted both the burglary and the car theft. Police recovered the money from a bush near the school.

Senior Clubs Plan Thanksgiving Party

The Senior Men's Club and the Senior Ladies Sewing Club of Birmingham will hold a combined Thanksgiving meeting at 10 a.m. Friday in the Community House.

Charles Staples, president of the men's club, will preside and Harry Burch, past president, will introduce guest speaker, the Rev. Herbert B. Hudnut, pastor of the Woodward Avenue Presbyterian Church. Special guests will include Community House executives F. Ward Ouradnik, Mrs. C. L. Bouchard, Mrs. Fred C. Gould and Mrs. Ewald E. Schaffer.

Lunch will be served in the Ranch Room followed by fellowship, cards and shuffleboard.

MSU Is Subject Of Television Film

Michigan State University Oakland is the subject of a 30-minute documentary film which will be shown at 4 p.m., Sunday on W.W.J.-TV (Ch. 4).

The film, moderated by news man William Fyffe, examines the progress and future plans of the three-year-old university.

Persons who have been associated with MSU since its founding in 1957—such as James C. Zeder, 1040 Orchard Ridge, Bloomfield Hills, retired Chrysler Corp. engineering vice president; Mrs. Alfred G. Wilson, on whose Meadow Brook Farms estate the university was established; and Chancellor D. B. Varner—are featured in the film.

Woolfenden Named To Confab Caucus

Oakland County Republican Convention delegates have named Henry L. Woolfenden of Bloomfield Hills (R., 3rd district) as delegation representative to the Convention's GOP caucus.

Woolfenden will meet regularly with other GOP district representatives to discuss convention business.

The caucus will serve primarily as an instrument of communication," Kuhn explained. "We have 99 GOP delegates up here and it's easy to bog down in confusion simply because of a lack of information."

Woolfenden, former Michigan Bar Association president, will report to other Oakland GOP delegates at weekly breakfast meetings.
