

Local Residents Plan Festivities for Parents

VALLEY WOODS — Mr. and Mrs. William Andrew Kirk of Berkeley will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary Nov. 18 with a reception at the Birmingham Community House. In the Mary Griffith Lounge from 1 p. m. to 5 p. m. two grandsons, Kenneth Kittle Jr. and Harry Kirk Jr. will help receive the 800 invited guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Kirk are the parents of four children, William A. Kirk Jr. of Daran, Conn., Harry T. Kirk of Birmingham, Mr. Joseph L. Pierce of St. Clair and Mrs. Kenneth Kittle of Beverly Hills. There are 13 grandchildren and one great grandchild, Susan Alice, who is too young to travel. In the evening out-of-town guests will make up a party of 40 for dinner at Rotunda Inn. Among those attending will be brothers and sisters of Mr. and Mrs. Kirk and friends, Mr. and Mrs. Charles McLeod, Mr. and Mrs. Walter P. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Wylie Kirk, and Mrs. James Kirk. Also the George Rosses, Bruce Congers, Edith McLeod, Mrs. Edward Hooper, Morris Leppell and Mrs. Daniel Pierce.

Harry Kirk and Mrs. Kittle will co-host a brunch Sunday morning for their houseguests with Barbara Kittle assisting before she returns to Michigan State University.

Scouts of Valley Woods School Troop 1915 attended a business meeting Nov. 6 at Olympia which featured teen-age players. The troop was accompanied by their fathers and Scoutmaster George Wilson.

Television was out of fashion last week when guests gathered at the Miles Lilly home on Stafford Drive where they were treated to a screening of color slides. Mrs. Lilly's sister-in-law, Miss May Lilly took the pictures on her recent trip to Europe.

Before she returns to her home in Philadelphia the girls are setting down to some early holiday cookie making. All sorts of delicious goodies will soon be coming from their kitchen for Mrs. Lilly's a talented cake decorator.

Things may have quieted down for a pre-Thanksgiving lull, but not for the John C. Moore. Mrs. Moore has hosted a pre-Thanksgiving family party for 16, honoring Mary Patricia Swenney, who was married Nov. 4 at St. Hugo in the Beverly Hills. Later the Moons left for South Bend where they attended the Navy-Notre Dame game and spent the long weekend with the Frank Killelines, formerly of Detroit. While away the Moons were guests at a cocktail and dinner dances and two brunches in Miami, Fla., where they visited friends and relatives, then boarded the S. S. Lamonth for Nassau.

On their return they were greeted by their son "Whitey" Airman 2-A from Lincoln Air Force Base.

Queen of Martyrs PTA Schedules Open House Tonight

THE BEVERLYS — The PTA of Our Lady Queen of Martyrs School will hold its second meeting of the school year tonight. It will feature an "Open House" in the school room from 7 to 8 where the parents may visit classrooms to view projects and inspect their children's work.

The second floor assembly room will house special teaching equipment to be demonstrated during the evening. This includes a tachistoscope, a phrase-flashing machine to assist speed reading, a controlled reading machine to aid in reading comprehension, language ear-phone sets from the French Department and material from the science laboratory.

After the formal meeting at 8 in the social hall, refreshments will be served by a group of mothers.

A subscription to The Eclectic brings you the community's top news events 52 times a year.

There will be a house to house search by the women from 7 p. m. to 9 p. m. Dec. 5 with the drive officially opening Nov. 15 and running through Dec. 15.

Attending the meeting were Mrs. Charles Tippy, Mrs. Norman Almond, Mrs. Waldron Templemeyer, Mrs. Willbur Williams and the hostess.

Officers, committee members and guild chairman of Our Lady Queen of Martyrs will meet at 8:15 p. m. Tuesday, at the home of Mrs. David Mutchler, 16216 Wetherby. Because this is the last meeting until January, the group will conclude its business discussion with a social hour.

Mrs. Chester Guilmet of Riverside Drive will host her mother, Mrs. Emil Hanson, and Mrs. Donald Dittler of Birmingham with her mother, Mrs. Goodwin, attending a luncheon and fashion show at the Birmingham Country Club Nov. 8 to see the latest in fur styles for the coming season.

November 20 for adults and Nov. 27 for the young people are dates on which members of the Beverly Hills Baptist Church will attend showings of the movie "King of Kings."

The Rev. Roy Pitts will be in charge of both groups with transportation by chartered bus. On Oct. 22, the Rev. Roy Pitts will be in charge of both groups with transportation by chartered bus.

Disappointed Thugs Pistol-Whip Man In B'field Township

BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP — A gun club attendee was pistol-whipped Friday night on a dark road by two armed men who were angered when they found he was not a wealthy resident of the area.

Harold McGoldrick, 21, was treated at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital. Police said he was not injured seriously.

McGoldrick, who works at Link's Standard Service, Long Lake and Telegraph roads, was returning a car to Dr. Watson A. Gilpin, 1388 Lochridge. He was forced to stop at Club Drive and Ayshire at 10:30 a. m. when he saw that the road was blocked by a car.

The two men, who were stockings over their heads, robbed him of $21. He said they pistol-whipped him because he was not the wealthy resident they expected him to be.

S'field Pupils 'Govern' City For One Day

SOUTHFIELD — Don Glush, Southfield High School senior, served the city as "mayor-for-a-day" Monday. Son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Glush, he was elected to the one-day post by members of the school's government classes.

Don and other students were elected to city posts as part of the Optimist Club's annual Youth in Government Day.

Other city posts were filled by Sydelle Becker, city clerk; Sandra Dronkowski, treasurer; Wally Kay, judge; Ed Lundberg, assistant judge.

COUNCIL SEATS were filled by Cheryl Commins, Jane Herrick, Bonnie Lutz, Cheryl Reimer, Don Manderfeld, Ginn Waldorf and Cheryl Schroeder.

Appointments filled other city posts such as that of city administrator, police chief, fire chief and building commissioner.

The student officials began the day with an assembly at the high school. After orientation, they toured Southfield, had tea at the home of a councilman, were taken to dinner and attended the city council meeting in the evening.

Members of the Beverly PTA indicted Oct. 17 by Chairman Donald Smith were Willy Grove, Bill McManis, Jan Peas, Jonathan Braum, Fred Collins, Steve Hunter, David Larson, Arthur Boley and Robert Stashin. A highlight of the evening was a new electrically operated ceremony board which lit up a different colored bulb to signify the particular rank each cub was awarded. The device was built by Harold Seymour and Robert Engel, assisted by Harold Harding and John LeRoy.

Congratulations to Dr. and Mrs. William Mullin of Gorgeon on the birth of twin sons, Scott MacFarland and Gregory William Mullin. The boys were born Oct. 22, weighing in at 6 pounds and 6 pounds 1 1/2 ounces.

Mrs. M. L. Mills of W. Rutland has a houseguest, Mrs. William E. Bradley of Greenville, who is here to spend a week with the Millers. Mrs. Bradley is on a shopping trip into Birmingham and the ladies attended "La Plume de Ma Tante," at the Flahar Theatre.

SOUTH BEKERSHIRE — Mrs. Helen G. Gorgeon, 1388 Lochridge, left Saturday, to attend the bi-annual convention of the National Federation of Temple Sisterhood. Mrs. Welner is up for nomination to the board of directors and as a member of the speaker's bureau.

Mr. and Mrs. David Rieck of Vergon Drive entertained Mr. Rieck's mother, Mrs. Therese Rieck, when she visited them for a few days recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Hershberger of St. James Drive were happy hosts last weekend to the J. M. Growthers and the William Galeas and their children. Former neighbors in Berea, Ohio, the three families enjoyed reminiscing but found time to take the children on an outing to Greenfield Village.

Marian High friends of Susan Young gathered at her home on Stellamar Drive Nov. 7 for a slumber party. A platter session, games, and other fun ended with brunch for Frances Turner, Barbara Schuck, Carol Torczewski, Marty Laffin, Kathy Snyder and Gale Osborne.

Mr. and Mrs. Warner L. Moore and daughter Peggy of Mayfair Lane returned from a vacation to Atlanta, Ga., and Miami, Fla., where they visited friends and relatives, then boarded the S. S. Lamonth for Nassau.

On their return they were greeted by their son "Whitey" Airman 2-A from Lincoln Air Force Base.

Southfield Optimists Convene Tonight

SOUTHFIELD — Robert L. Tomplin Jr., assistant in the Oakland County Prosecutor's office, will discuss his occupation tonight at the Southfield Optimist Club meeting, which convenes at 6:30 at Howard Johnson's Restaurant, 10 Mile Road and Northwestern.

The Optimists will also meet Nov. 30.

Members of the Beverly PTA indicted Oct. 17 by Chairman Donald Smith were Willy Grove, Bill McManis, Jan Peas, Jonathan Braum, Fred Collins, Steve Hunter, David Larson, Arthur Boley and Robert Stashin. A highlight of the evening was a new electrically operated ceremony board which lit up a different colored bulb to signify the particular rank each cub was awarded. The device was built by Harold Seymour and Robert Engel, assisted by Harold Harding and John LeRoy.

Congratulations to Dr. and Mrs. William Mullin of Gorgeon on the birth of twin sons, Scott MacFarland and Gregory William Mullin. The boys were born Oct. 22, weighing in at 6 pounds and 6 pounds 1 1/2 ounces.

Mrs. M. L. Mills of W. Rutland has a houseguest, Mrs. William E. Bradley of Greenville, who is here to spend a week with the Millers. Mrs. Bradley is on a shopping trip into Birmingham and the ladies attended "La Plume de Ma Tante," at the Flahar Theatre.

SOUTH BEKERSHIRE — Mrs. Helen G. Gorgeon, 1388 Lochridge, left Saturday, to attend the bi-annual convention of the National Federation of Temple Sisterhood. Mrs. Welner is up for nomination to the board of directors and as a member of the speaker's bureau.

Mr. and Mrs. David Rieck of Vergon Drive entertained Mr. Rieck's mother, Mrs. Therese Rieck, when she visited them for a few days recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Hershberger of St. James Drive were happy hosts last weekend to the J. M. Growthers and the William Galeas and their children. Former neighbors in Berea, Ohio, the three families enjoyed reminiscing but found time to take the children on an outing to Greenfield Village.

Marian High friends of Susan Young gathered at her home on Stellamar Drive Nov. 7 for a slumber party. A platter session, games, and other fun ended with brunch for Frances Turner, Barbara Schuck, Carol Torczewski, Marty Laffin, Kathy Snyder and Gale Osborne.

Mr. and Mrs. Warner L. Moore and daughter Peggy of Mayfair Lane returned from a vacation to Atlanta, Ga., and Miami, Fla., where they visited friends and relatives, then boarded the S. S. Lamonth for Nassau.

On their return they were greeted by their son "Whitey" Airman 2-A from Lincoln Air Force Base.

Three Flags DAR Hosts Husbands At Annual Meeting

Three Flags Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, of Birmingham, Mrs. Conrad Bloom and Mrs. Neil Brannon shared hostess duties.

Husbands were guests at the evening meeting Monday at 6:30 p. m. at the home of Mrs. LeRoy Hopper, 1491 Birmingham Blvd., Detroit, gave a talk with slides on "Russian Impressions."

Members brought Christmas gifts for the mountain boys and girls of Tamassee D.A.R. Approved School at Tamassee, S. C.

PICTURE BOOK SITE

Nestled on the curving slope of a gorgeous wooded ravine in Foxcroft, this charming Fieldstone and Brick Ranch with clapboard touches fits the picture as if artist inspired.

- Long Living-Dining room with fireplace and—
- Adjoining Family room, overlook and open to the
- Secluded rear yard—birds, wild flowers, mature stately trees and a sense of peace.
- Paneled Library too.
- Good-sized Kitchen with dishwasher, disposal.
- 3 Bedrooms, 2 full Baths.
- Vaughan and Wing Lake Schools.

The best of Country Living and City Convenience. $34,500.

CALL US FOR AN APPOINTMENT

SNYDER KINNEY & BENNETT
INC.
Realtors

239 So. Woodward

MI 4-7000

BEST BUY IN BLOOMFIELD VILLAGE

208 N. GLENGARY
$34,500.00

Sparkling white Colonial. Well located on one of the village's most beautiful roads. Featuring 4 bedrooms, 2 1/2 baths and paneled activities room that could be used for 5th bedroom. Offered at a price that is true value. Vacant—ready for your occupancy. May we show you today?

CHARLES J.

VAN HORN

MI 6-2400

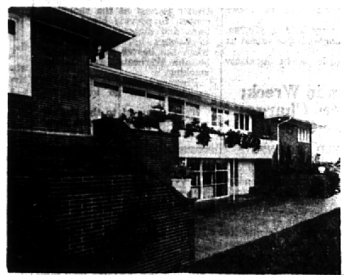

JO 4-5644

IN RUDGATE

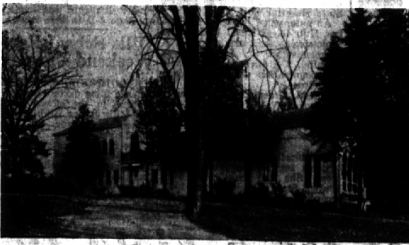

Here is one of Bloomfield Hills' outstanding new homes. The setting is beautiful Rudgate, an address for those of impeccable taste. The home has four bedrooms, 3 baths and powder room and a magnificent family room. An early purchase will permit you to choose your decor and add those special touches.

NEAR THE HUNT CLUB

FROM YOUR KITCHEN WINDOW

NEAR VAUGHAN SCHOOL

In the tradition of Bloomfield Hills classic homes, this is the ultimate in luxury living. Near Cranbrook and Christ Church, this home has seven bedrooms, four baths, and a maid's suite. There's also a lovely swimming pool. The Owner has just authorized us to reduce the price to $59,000. for an early sale.

Can you imagine looking out your Living Room at this view? Your guests, too, will enjoy the indoor-outdoor entertaining area designed for fun. On sparkling Vhay Lake this modern home has just about everything! 3 super bedrooms, 3 1/2 baths, large paneled library, large living room, family room with bar, etc., etc., yet it's priced below surrounding properties. May we show it to you?

PATSY says:
BETTER prices... fill up now!
Now is the time to fill your bin with best-priced Patsy's Coal! Cool! Right now prices are low, and Patsy's Stoker stores will get the best coal for you, better than you can get elsewhere. Call us now!
FERRIS GARDNER
COAL & OIL CO.
LI 3-2500

MAX BROOCK INC.

300 S. WOODWARD

MI 4-6700