

Maud Danger Cooper Wears Gown of 1894

St. James Church in Ferndale was the scene Saturday noon for the marriage of Maud Danger Cooper to Alvin John Granzow Jr. The Rev. Bernard J. Harrington performed the ceremony in the presence of 150 guests.

Parents of the newweds are Mr. and Mrs. John A. Cooper of Pilgrim Street, Birmingham; and Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Granzow of Ferndale.

THE BRIDE appeared in her maternal grandmother's wedding gown which was worn in 1894. The gown was fashioned of deep cream satin featuring a portrait neckline, short puff sleeves and a tight bodice. Her fingertip veil was secured by a crown and she carried yellow roses.

Mrs. Richard M. McFarland, sister of the bride, was her only atendant. She wore a silver-green brocade dress and carried bronze mums.

LARRY L. Weping of Royal Oak stood as best man and usher were Paul E. and Earl J. Granzow. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Cooper wore a taupe peau de soie dress. The bridegroom's mother selected a blue brocade sheath. Both mothers had pale pink roses.

The newweds are honeymooning in Canada.

Birmingham-Bloomfield Hills Society Notes

By JOYCE KLARR
MI 6-1353

This is the week we all get the bird. By Saturday won't a steak look good? After tomorrow the wise hostess will avoid serving ham and turkey until well after the Christmas holidays!

Southern Fried

Dr. and Mrs. Harold Longyear of Bloomfield Hills are spending the Thanksgiving holiday at Sea Island, Ga., as the houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Smead also of Bloomfield Hills whose winter home is down there.

Honeymoon Bridge

Mr. and Mrs. David Ladin Orr are making their home in the Birmingham Manor after their recent wedding. The bride is the former Nancy Jane Bricker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Bricker of Glenvarry road. Mr. Orr is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Orr of Forest Lane in Birmingham.

The Night After

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred C. Glanzl have planned cocktails and dancing for a group of their friends this Friday evening at Bloomfield Hills Country Club.

Bus Boys

A large bus was chartered by the G. T. Trumbulls last week. It pulled up in front of their home right on schedule and 50 guests boarded. The Trumbulls have found the bus system is the easiest way to transport friends and their guests the painless way to dinner at the Reese Club, then on to the Olympia for the Ice Follies.

The Advisors

Last Friday saw a number of our own wayers at the Emma Willard benefit performance of "Advice and Consent" at the Fisher. Among the throng were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hamill, Mr. and Mrs. John Gilbert, Mr. and Mrs. William Purcell, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Moore, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Bill Donaldson, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Finn, Dr. and Mrs. Edward Dodge (Mrs. Finn's parents who are here visiting from Battle Creek), Mr. and Mrs. Kingsley Brown, Jr., and Mrs. John E. Quirk (Mr. Q. stayed at home with the flu).

After the show the local group journeyed over to the Roaring Twenties Club which is rapidly becoming a popular after dark spot. It must be those drinks served in coffee cups! (shades of the Untouchables).

Beautiful Ohio

This will be a big reunion weekend for Ohio State and Michigan alumni around town. Festivities include pre-game dinner parties, brunches, cocktail parties and victory dinners (with many side bets as to the winners!) Some of those coming to town for the game include Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Galbreath who will stay with her parents, the Muir Linds (the Galbreaths are from Columbus), Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Lester who will stay with her parents, the Warrens, S. Boothby, and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Schmidt who will arrive in town for Thanksgiving with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clark Bennett. Others in the reunion crowd include Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. William Schubert, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Smith, Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Spaldeman, Jr. Mr. and Mrs. Helmut Heuser and Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Williams.

Family Style

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Monaghan will have 20 at their Thanksgiving dinner. Bloomfield Hills Country Club. Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Frost have reserved a table for fourteen, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Kern will have 25 in their group and the C. L. McCuens, seven.

Sneak Peak

Mrs. Marvin Katke who is chairman of the Christmas show to be given by the Birmingham branch of WNFCA on Dec. 6 and 7, invited her committee for luncheon last week.

Dunstan Dancers

St. Dunstan staged their annual fall party last week end at their playhouse on Lone Pine road. The twist was very large that night with most of the members rating as expert in a short time.

Welcome Home

Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. McGinnis had the first of their series of parties for friends they haven't seen since their five month tour of Europe.

the decor as east and west blends in this appointed home.

TEA WILL BE served from 1 p.m. until 4 p.m. at the 125-year-old house on Bowden Lane, recently restored by Edward Green. Guests may renew old acquaintances and hopefully make new ones in a joyfully shopping for holiday treats.

Since the tour is in lieu of a bazaar to raise funds to support the work of the Women's Society of Christian Service, there will be gift items such as fruit cakes, jams, jellies and hand-made gifts. Especially for the coming holidays the Gay Yankee Ball of Wax candles will be featured.

MRS. EDWARD Green, chairman, is being assisted by Mesdames Edward Lopnow, Paul Ziegelbauer, John McLean, Paul Settle and Everett Swallow. Nursery for pre-school children will be provided at the church. Reservation chairman is Mrs. Paul Seth. Tickets may be obtained from any committee member or at the door the day of the tour.
