Derby Dragons

On Nov. 15, the student council officers from Derby, Barnum, and Groves met for the second time to work out plans for a city student council.

On Nov. 17, the student council sponsored a dance for eighth and ninth grades. The dance was called the "Pigskin Prom" in honor of this year's football team which won out of the seven games they played. Baby pictures of the members of the White team and squad were displayed at the dance.

One of the clubs which has been formed just this year at Derby is the Coin Club. It is the purpose of this club to promote a better knowledge of coins and to improve the coin collections of its members.

Chato Hill, a seventh grade student, expressed his thoughts about Thanksgiving in the following poem which he recently wrote:
Late in November comes a day
When we should bow our heads
And pray.
The Pilgrims met to thank their God,
And so it seems we quite odd
That though we keep their holiday,
We use it just to eat and play.
These days it seems the turkey
Above the history and the thanks,
But I'm so glad just to be living,
I sure can spare the thanks I'm giving.
