Franklin PTA Holds Phone Bridge Tourney

FRANKLIN — Mrs. James O'Neill of the Hartwood copper, the first prize of the PTA telephone bridge with a high score of 7,120.

Hold next week in nearly a dozen homes, the tournament provided approximately $100 (after prize expenses) which will go toward a new mimeograph machine for the Franklin School.

The results, if any, will be used to start reference libraries for each of the fourth, fifth and sixth grade classrooms.

Grand Slam winners were Mrs. James Auchteronie of Balsam and Mrs. Paul Seeger of N. Greenbriar.

Mrs. LeVerne Wiseman and Mrs. Howard Rex Sr. made small slams, while Mrs. C. Woodard got the low score of the evening.

Mrs. Harold Geiger and Mrs. Richard Deidrich matched their mark in bridge history by getting the first trick taken with the two of spades.

In lieu of a ticker tape welcome, friends of the Archie McCardell (formerly of Colony Hill) will meet at Rosemond Hills Inn Saturday night to see Mrs. McCardell here in Geelong, Australia for a brief visit.

McCardell was unable to make the trip as planned at this time. So, it will be up to the little woman to fill in the details about her new life "down under."

Russian Schools Topic of Lecture At Wing Lake

WING LAKE — Mrs. Lydia Lear, curriculum coordinator of the Clarensville Public Schools, will be guest speaker Dec. 4 when the Wing Lake PTA convenes.

The program will begin at 8 p.m. in the school all-purpose room.

During the summer of 1960, Mrs. Lear participated in a five-week seminar in the USSR. The seminar was planned and directed by the Trade Union of Education and Scientific Workers of the USSR.

Cities visited included Moscow and vicinity, Sverdlovsk, Alma Ata, Tashkent, Samarkand, Stalingrad, Tbilisi and Kharkov.

Mrs. Lear will illustrate her talk on the trip with slides.

IN ADDITION TO the Russian trip, Mrs. Lear has traveled in Europe, Asia and Africa.

She has a taught kindergarten through the eighth grade and has been a visiting lecturer on the staff at Eastern Michigan University. She attended Central Michigan, Michigan State and Wayne State universities.

PARENTS OR residents not in the Wing Lake School area are invited to attend the lecture.

A coffee hour question-answer session will follow.

Festivities Hail Library Opening For Franklins

FRANKLIN — Decked out with flowery tributes from well-wishers, gleaming waxed floors, a fire blazing in its hearth, the Franklin Community library re-opened its doors wide Sunday afternoon for an official open house.

Following formal ceremonies and the awarding of prizes to essay contest winners, the library played host to nearly a hundred visitors.

MRS. WILLYS WAGNER and Mrs. Edward Paige, presided at the coffee table. Their unstated interest in the small independent library throughout the years has been rewarding for the whole community.

The open house was continued through Wednesday with library committees acting as hostesses.

FRIENDS OF THE Library chairman, Mrs. Paul Robertson, reported that almost 800 subscribers had bought Franklin Forum series tickets. The first Forum program was held Tuesday with Mrs. Charles Peterson as guest speaker.

New library hours have been announced. From Monday through Thursday the library will be open from 8 to 5:30 p.m.; Tuesday and Thursday from 7:30 to 9 p.m. and every Saturday from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Residents of Bingham Farms, Woodcrest, Meadowdale and Fishcreeper Farms, Wing Lake and adjacent Farmington Township as well as Franklin can avail themselves of family membership for $24 dollars a year.

Rabbit Speaker At Franklin WSCS

FRANKLIN — Rabbi Sherman T. Wine of Temple Beth El was the guest speaker for the Nov. 20 meeting of the Women's Society for Christian Service of the Franklin Community Church.

Mrs. Carl Koenig, program chairman, arranged for the talk on Judaism as an outcome of the growing interest in understanding other beliefs. The Mary-Martha Circle members served a noon luncheon.

Bank hours at the post office are 10 a.m. to 12 p.m. and 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. You can help speed up the delivery of all mail by bringing in your non-payable letters and packages early in the day whenever possible.
