HAPPY THANKSGIVING TO ALL

AS IN SOME QUIET NEW ENGLAND VILLAGE, perfect for the small family. An enjoyable walk with the stroller to the Kroger shopping area, while the school-age youngsters skips a couple of blocks to Adams elementary.

Dormers add to the charm of the two bedrooms; first floor library can be a third bedroom. This is in addition to the delightful living room with fireplace and a full dining room. The home has a first floor lav and full basement. Two car garage provides storage space for garden tools and bikes.

A retired couple would also enjoy this home. $18,500.

AN ACRE IN BLOOMFIELD . . . WITH BROAD VISTAS

The newest in Provincial styling blended with "traditional" center entrance plan.

Eminently livable—to satisfy a 4 bedroom family. At the same time, entertaining demands are so easily met in the "circulating" living areas. A large gathering room is near; the formal living room, each with a fireplace. The dining room is convenient to the fine kitchen (plus a large breakfast area). There are 2 baths and a lovely powder room. In fact, your guests will be impressed with the good taste displayed in the decorating throughout the house.

Unusual attention has been given to architecture and interior detailing. The conscientious builder carefully completed the picture: professional landscaping, sweeping circular driveway. The close-in area offers black top roads and sewer.

Traditional Colonial . . . fresh modern features of high quality—$49,900.

IN THE OPEN COUNTRY, WITH NEXT DOOR NEIGHBORS. Across the street from Oakland Hills Country Club greens.

A ranch house should fulfill certain requirements, and this brick home meets these specifications: 3 Bedrooms plus a large family room, plus a full basement with big tiled recreation room. 2 car attached garage, built-in Frigidaire range, extra lav off the kitchen. 21' living room with fireplace overlooks the golf course.

Just one block to St. Regis school and West Maple bus. Just $27,900.
