

S'field GOP Women To Convene Monday For Talk, Election

SOUTHFIELD—The Republican Women of Southfield will hold a general meeting at 8 p.m. Monday at the Reynolds Aluminum Building, 10000 Northland Drive.

The guest speaker will be Mrs. Philip Gentile, official observer of the United Nations since 1958 through a grant of the Ford Foundation. She has also observed special meetings of SAO, ILO and UNESCO in Rome, Geneva and Paris.

Mrs. Gentile is a resident of Lathrup Village and is included in the first edition of Who's Who of American Women.

Officers for the 1962 term will be elected at this meeting. Refreshments will be served following the program.

All women from the Southfield area are invited to attend.

Brother Rice Plans Dec. 1, 2 Musical Play

BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP—Brother Rice High School will assist Dec. 1 and 2 in the St. Columbian Playhouse's presentation of "After Dark."

The musical play will begin at 8:15 p.m. in the school auditorium.

THE STUDENTS have helped to publicize the play and are taking parts as song and dance men in specialty numbers and back stage.

Tickets are available at Grinnell in Birmingham and at the door.

Can Extend Leave For Area Soldiers, Recruiter Announces

SOUTHFIELD—"All soldiers home on leave, regardless of whether they entered or were drafted, may have their present or future leaves during the holidays extended," according to SFC M. O'Brien, Army recruiter for the Farmington, Novi and Southfield areas.

"LEAVE EXTENSIONS may be granted up to five days or three-day passes obtained before the serviceman's return to his home station, Sgt. O'Brien said.

Soldiers due home for the holidays are urged to contact the local Army recruiter at Gr-6-3090.

Wife: You know, dear, you don't seem as well dressed as you were when I married me five years ago.

Husband: I don't see why not. I'm wearing the same suit.

Local Women Organize Unit to Meet Interests

CRANBROOK VILLAGE—Mrs. Robert Hennessy has been named chairman of a new group of local women who have formed a unit of the Michigan State Extension Service Informative economic club for adults.

The women plan to meet during the day in various homes in classes that will meet their particular interests. The organizational meeting was held in September at Mrs. Ted's home and the girls already have held a Christmas present workshop.

Officers are Mrs. Robert Hennessy, chairman; Mrs. D. Taylor, vice chairman; Mrs. John O'Leary, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. John Beiser, recreation leader; Mrs. A. Goutley, community club chairman; Mrs. W. Spodek and Mrs. E. Hawkins, project leaders; and Mrs. Archie Craig, reporter.

Last Thursday, Mrs. Craig and Mrs. Spodek attended a leader training session on consumer credit in Detroit Royal Oak.

SOUTHFIELD—Mothers of Men in Service, Southfield unit, held a party Nov. 2 to raise money to send boxes to their boys in service.

The "Night in Hawaii" luncheon featured a fashion show with Mrs. Wilbur West, Mrs. Edward Norwick, Mrs. George G. Gritz, Mrs. Mrs. Russell Kreuger, Jr.

B'field Hills Convent Delegates to Attend U of D Conference

The Convent of the Sacred Heart, Bloomfield Hills, will participate when high school Socialists meet at the University of Detroit Friday to discuss "Human Relations."

More than 1,000 students will be delegates to the ninth annual Training School of Sociality Action, representing more than 150 Michigan high schools. The program will begin at 9:45 a.m. in the U of D Memorial building and is sponsored by the U of D Society.

In addition to a keynote address, the program will include other talks and a program for the moderators of high school socialists.

William Shannon Speaks to Group

Students at Detroit Country Day School heard an address Friday by William Shannon, vice president of the Manufacturers' National Bank and head of the Data-Processing Division using electronic computers.

HIS TALK was on "The Second Industrial Revolution" brought about by the electronic computing machine and revealed some of its fantastic accomplishments in both the U.S. defense and industrial programs.

He emphasized to the students that the field of Data Processing is one in which there will be a great demand for qualified specialists, in that by 1970 there will be a need for a half-million experts.
