Mortensen Named To National Group

Charles Mortensen, manager of the Birmingham Chamber of Commerce, has been appointed to the membership committee of the American Chamber of Commerce Executives.

"Mr. Mortensen has distinguished himself in the field of Chamber administration, and we are pleased to call upon his knowledge and experience in furthering the work of our organization," commented W. Scott Christopher, president of the national association.

"It is the purpose of this committee to build and maintain the membership strength of ACCE to assure it adequate manpower and financial resources."

The American Chamber of Commerce Executives is a national management association of some 2,250 local chamber executives.

Skillman Forms Own Association

Philip Skillman Jr., 1289 Stanley, Birmingham, has announced the creation of Phil Skillman Associates, operating out of the New York Life offices in the Harlan Bldg. at 250 Martin, Birmingham.

Skillman has been the assistant manager of the Birmingham office since its establishment two and one half years ago, but will now devote full time to sales.

His organization specializes in personal estate planning, business continuation programs, group insurance coverage and pension plans.

No matter what you have to sell, ads will do the best job for you. The cost is low, they are easily replaced.

Commuters...

You still can't beat it...even on price!

For speed, comfort, convenience and cost, you still can't beat Grand Trunk commuter service to Detroit! Even with our recent increase in fares, you still save big money over the cost of driving and parking your car (remember: auto costs are going up, too!) Most important, GTW gives you priceless freedom from road and weather problems, a chance to ride relaxed. Tired of the strain? Try the train!

Harry A. Sanders, Vice President and General Manager.
