Temporarily, however, the zenith in four wheeling and dealing was achieved by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Moss who transported a group of their friends to the annual NEBA (North End Business Mens' Association) Christmas tea dance last Sunday afternoon in a brand new Mercedes Benz executive coach.

This job featured two lounge chairs, a table, a luxurious sofa (which converts to sleeping accommodations for three) plumbing facilities, a stainless steel sink, stove and refrigerator and a built-in bar.

The rich paneling was set off by ankle deep black carpeting, elegant red upholstery, soft lights, curtained windows and even a barometer.

Among the Moss's guests were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Gullford and Mr. and Mrs. William Underdown. Others at the tea dance were Mr. and Mrs. William Purcell, Mr. and Mrs. John Gilbert, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. William Gilardy, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Blake, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Syme, Dr. and Mrs. Don Albert, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Ditttrich, Mr. and Mrs. George Russell, Mr. and Mrs. William Compton, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Donaldson, Mr. and Mrs. James Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Restrick, Mr. and Mrs. Frank McLaughlin, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Childie and Mr. and Mrs. William Gerhardt. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hamill entertained at a supper after the dance.

Star Billing

Mr. and Mrs. W. Whiting Raymond and Mr. and Mrs. William L. Graham were the guests of Floyd Starr at his home, Candler Hall, which is located on the grounds of his famed Starr Commonwealth School.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pokorny were hosts at a movie night recently. Guests were treated to the almost professional movies the Pokornys took during their six weeks motoring trip in Europe last spring with the William Paddisons and John Grahams.

No More Tea

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Girard are also reviving tea dancing, although they labeled their party a "cocktail dance" last week at the Bloomfield Hills Country Club.
