Symphony to Present Annual Family Concert

South Oakland Symphony will present its annual Family Concert Dec. 3. The program for the afternoon will feature two young people as soloists with the orchestra. The first will be Nancy Wilson, pianist. She will play the 2nd and 3rd Piano Concerto No. 1.

At the age of 15 she has studied piano for 11 years. The last 6 years with Mitsha Kotler. Last summer she played in the Honors recital at Interlochen. Besides her other activities, she also plays the violin in her high school orchestra.

DARREL BARNES will be the second soloist of the afternoon. He is a regular member of the violin section of the South Oakland Symphony, but that is only one of his talents. He will solo as a French Horn Soloist in the Saint-Saens

Concerto for French Horn. He was the National Winner in the Winds Section of the National Federation of Music Club in last year. His mother plays French horn in the orchestra, and his brother, who is an identical twin, now is a member of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, and the South Oakland Symphony Orchestra in this concert.

THE SECOND half of the concert will be presented by the Contemporary Civic Ballet. Rose Marie Floyd is the director and choreographer. They will present La Forza Destino, Nut Cracker Suite and The Sound of Music. The Orchestra will open the concert with The Bartered Bride by Smetana. The concert will start at 8:15 and will be presented at the Oak Park High School.
