Association Calendar Chock-Full of Plans

CRANBROOK VILLAGE—Saturday night's dinner dance at Red Run Golf Club was such a success, with some 268 guests present, that Cranbrook Property Owners Association hopes to hold a repeat performance in the spring.

In their future planning, association members have allowed for a bridge tournament on Jan. 26, and possibly a golf league, to be held in the spring.

Mrs. Donn Boswell is in charge of tournament arrangements and notes that the tournament will be held in the concourse at 14 Mile and Crooks Road, Clawson. It will be open to Cranbrook Village residents and, if enough interest is generated, further tournaments may be held.

Mrs. Boswell may be contacted for further information at her home, 29316 Southgate.

Cocktails before last Saturday's dance were held at several area homes. The aid Zwirns were host to about 26 guests. Among those who left a bit early to help welcome guests at the dance were Roger Tyslans, Carl Kruegers and James Russells.

Following the ball, about 40 friends and neighbors met again at the Zwirns for after party chatter.

Also hosting cocktails were Mr. and Mrs. Alex Sinclair of Rock Creek Drive who had 30 guests, all of whom went on a masse to the association party.

At the James E. Smith residence on Spring River Drive, some 20 guests were entertained by the foaming punch that centered an attractive table. With the aid of dry ice, the beverage presented a real conversation piece. Assisting the Smiths as hosts were neighbors Mr. and Mrs. David Lewis.

Coming up is another neighborhood sponsored ball at Plum Hollow Country Club on Dec. 8 at 7:45 p.m., to be given by the Northampton Civic Association.

The annual Christmas dinner dance, the seventh, is being arranged by committee chairman Wallace Jossman, with the assistance of Walter Hrenning, W. L. McCracken, Joseph Mysza and Harry Wasson.

Three cocktail parties are in the plans—exact location to be announced later.

Republican Women Meet in Southfield To Elect Officers

SOUTHFIELD—Officers for the Southfield Republican Women's Club were elected Monday evening when the group met at the Reynolds Aluminum Building, Southfield.

Mrs. Ernest Gill was named president; Mrs. J. C. Miller, vice president and council delegate; Mrs. James Neithercut, recording secretary; Mrs. Kenneth N. Larsen, corresponding secretary and Mrs. Michael Rottenberk, treasurer.

3 Grandsons Arrive With Parents for Visit

LATHRUP—Councillman H. Earl Hanson presided over a most enjoyable gathering during the past weekend as his three grandsons, two from Racine, Wis., visited with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard G. B. Hanson.

Sunday was set aside to visit the Hansons' daughter, Mrs. Arthur Moran, and her family on Cedarbrook in Birmingham and that added up to a grand total of five grandsons and one granddaughter.

Monday, the younger Mrs. Hanson and her trio of boys—Grant, 11, William, 10, and Eric, 9—visited Greenfield Village. The Richard Hansons have just recently been transferred to Racine from Atlanta, Ga. where they had lived for 10 years—a welcome move as far as the councilman and his wife are concerned for they hadn't seen their grandsons for two years.

The family returned to Racine Tuesday morning.

Back to typical November weather came the Melvin and Howard Humphreys who spent a week in Miami Beach recently. While the men attended meetings of the Institute of Industrial Laundries convention, the ladies enjoyed the pleasant holiday spot, plus a fashion show sponsored by the Institute.

Another interesting visit was made by conventioners and their wives to see the dog races.

The two couples returned Nov. 18, and say they especially enjoyed seeing former Lathrup residents, the Oliver Carsons, while in Florida.

Mrs. James Lanham, chairman of the volunteer services for Lathrup Woman's Club, is currently busy as a volunteer worker at Children's Hospital—her task is purchasing items for the hospital gift shop.

Says Mrs. Lanham: "Instead of personal Christmas shopping, I'm buying by the dozens—Teddy bears, cut-out books and baby dolls."

Mrs. Lee E. Stowell of Dolores, committee chairman of conservation for the Three Flags chapter DAR of Lathrup, is responsible in case you wondered, for the ordering and placement of those posters in Southfield schools on fire prevention.

Some of the posters were also placed in local stores and gas stations.

Hostess at a recent surprise coffee and baby shower was Mrs. Robert McMillan, assisted by Mrs. E. Lew Parker. Guest of honor was Mrs. John Olaszewski who was feted by some 20 guests at the McMillan home on Lathrup boulevard.

And another nice citizen is Edward G. Lymperis who was the first Lathrup citizen this year to send in a contribution for Christmas seals to the county organization. County goal is $150,000 and over 200,000 letters are already in the mail in the current county drive.

Talented Nancy Wilson will be featured Sunday afternoon at 3:15 when the South Oakland Symphony gives a concert at Oak Park High School auditorium. Nancy will play the second and third movements of Mendelssohn's Piano Concerto Number One.

Nancy, 15, plays the clarinet and viola in the Southfield High School orchestra and has studied piano for 10 years, six of them with Mischa Kottler. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Wilson of Morningside Plaza.

No matter what you have to sell, Birmingham Eccentric classified ads will do the best job for you. The cost is low, they are easily prepared and usually bring desired results.

Yule Arrangements Will Be Featured By Lathrup Women

LATHRUP—The Lathrup Woman's Club will feature holiday arrangements by Stan Kabran at its Monday meeting. Hostess for the afternoon is Mrs. Clarence Wormuth. She will be assisted by Mrs. Harry Dalley, Mrs. H. P. Froehlich, Mrs. E. Robert Isbell, Mrs. William Ramsey and Mrs. James Upstill. Mrs. James Lanham and Mrs. H. Walter Reed will preside at the tea table.

MAJESTY IN THE TREES

Is the only way to describe the new colonial at 226 Shirley Drive, just South of Maple Road in Birmingham

UNDER $40,000

OPEN IN THE AFTERNOON

SALES BY: GREATER BLOOMFIELD REAL ESTATE CO. MI 6-6500

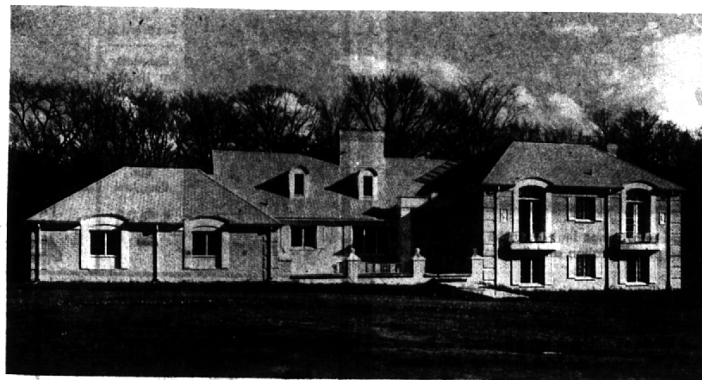

- 4 Bedrooms
- Formal Dining Room
- White Marble foyer
- Landscaped lot
- Circular driveway
- Full Basement

A wonderful starter house because it has FOUR bedrooms.

Hard to find in this type of home is the nicely finished recreation room, and a lav in the basement, keeping traffic from upstairs, especially during the bad weather of winter months. There is both a dining area and eating space in the kitchen. Also important is carpeting and a garage.

Budget minded at $17,900.

WHEN SPRING ARRIVES

You can open wide the balcony doors in the bedrooms (there are two balconies in the master suite) and gaze upon the rolling countryside of Bloomfield Hills.

Of the five bedrooms, 4 have private baths (spacious, too)! There's little chance of a king-size family stepping on each other's toes here—34' family room, paneled in ash, with a fireplace and hidden sink bar. Also in the lower level a 38' games room.

French Provincial detailing has been extended from the white marble foyer to the kitchen woods and cupboards to the balcony living room featuring a white marble hearth... perfect for your Christmas tree this year.

In the very center of the Hills, 326 feet from Cranbrook School. $85,000.
