

Leave Village, to Woods For Thanksgiving Day

THE BEVERLYS—The Peter Cummins Jr. of Inglewood and their six children, James, Grace, Robert, Peter, Tommy and Billy, spent a Thanksgiving they can remember and talk about for a long, long time.

Three families with adjacent summer cottages near Oneda decided that since the buildings were heated, it would be an adventure for the children and everyone else to spend the holiday together.

They packed the turkey and all the trimmings in their cars and hoping for good weather took off for a real old-fashioned Thanksgiving.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Price are just back from a quick trip to Louisville, Ky., where they went to hear Mrs. Price's father lecture at a local hotel.

The next meeting of the Beverly Hills Garden Club will be Dec. 14 at the home of Mrs. Harold Reasoner on Mayfair Lane, with co-hostesses Mrs. Maynard Beukema and Mrs. Charles Quick of Devonshire assisting. Mrs. Hans Schjolin, a local garden enthusiast, Christmas card party this year, at St. Thomas Guild of Our Lady Queen of Martyrs is planning a trip to the Fisher Theater.

The date is Dec. 15; the play, "Bye, Bye, Birdie". Chairman Jo Ann Meagher will accept reservations and also act as hostess the night of the performance when the ladies return to her home on Lathrap Village for refreshments.

On Thanksgiving day the John Bahaderians of Wetherby were hosts to Mrs. Bahaderian's mother, Mrs. Mary Margolan and her brother Thomas Margolan from Waukegan, Ill. Saturday the Bahaderians gave a cocktail party so their guests might meet Mr. and Mrs. Richard Simonian, of Birmingham, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Mardrosian of Detroit, and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Semionian from Lathrap Village.

The first skating night this year for the Beverly Hills Skating Club will be Dec. 12 when members convene at the Hank Greenwood home on Beaconsfield. The group meets five times a year for a skate-out at the Eton Rink followed by festivities at a member's home.

Friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hildebrand have announced since they moved from their Devonshire Road address but wish them good luck in their new home on Hylands in Birmingham.

Ralph H. Piets Jr. of Pierce and Max Evans of Elizabeth spent four days last week at their favorite hunting place. The man left Wednesday morning for Tower, Mich., and even though they were not lucky enough to get their buck they enjoyed the trip and wonderful fall weather.

The next Riverside Dance Club will be the "Mistletoe Ball" scheduled for Dec. 9 at the Birmingham Country Club. Music from 9:30 p.m. to 1 a.m. will be provided by Jack Rosevear and his band for this Christmas party.

To make Thanksgiving Day complete for Mr. and Mrs. Frank Van Doren of East 14 Mile Road, their son James arrived home from Kalamazoo, where he is a pre-divinity student. James drove home with fellow student Mike Morden and his parents, picking up another home-bound friend at Ann Arbor.

The Rotary Anna met at the home of Mrs. Wallace Reid on Norrlawn last week for a demonstration by florist John Moss and his assistant on Thanksgiving and Christmas arrangements.

The Beverly-12 Association will have in addition to their new social chairman Mrs. G. Kohhof, a co-chairman, Mrs. Leonard Budzen.

The December meeting of Cub Scouts 1024 Beverly School will feature a showing of toys and games made by the boys for presentation to an orphanage at Infanter.

The program for the evening will be "Fun for Everyone" with the parents joining their cubs in some hilarious antics. Two new Bobcats were inducted at the last meeting, David Godlew and Mike Bobas.

THE BHAM ECCENTRIC

Recently Mr. and Mrs. John Sower and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Van Doren of E. 14 Mile Road attended a layman's retreat at Shadybrook House in Mentor, Ohio.

SOUTH BERKSHIRES—The color slides the Anthony Foley took on their European trip last summer are still proving an attraction. In response to requests, the Foleys decided on another showing and invited neighbors on Vernon Drive in to see the pictures and to stay for coffee and cake.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Hallahan, Mrs. Katherine Erwin, Mrs. Emily Caspar, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Camel, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Rieck, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Moadale, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Bolling and Dr. and Mrs. Douglas Wood.

S. Berkshire Women Plan Dec. 5 Dinner

SOUTH BERKSHIRES—The South Berkshires Women's Association will hold an amorgashod dinner Dec. 5 in the Ranch Room at the Birmingham Community House.

It will begin at 7 p.m. Miss Lucille Ingram of the Detroit Edison Co. will be the speaker. She will demonstrate unusual uses of small appliances. The women of the club are preparing their favorite recipes for the dinner.

All-City Orchestra Appears in Concert At S'field High

SOUTHFIELD—The All-City Orchestra held its first concert of the season Wednesday evening at Southfield High School.

Comprised of accomplished young musicians from all cities in this area, this concert marks the beginning of the third season for this junior symphony group, under the baton of Richard Brown.

During the second half of the program, the orchestra was joined by the 90-voice Southfield High School choir, trained by L. Vincent Koehenderfer.

The American Foundation for the Blind reveals that about 16,000 blind children are enrolled in education programs, where they receive the special services set up by state and federal governments, but adds the number of blind youth not receiving these services may equal the number who do.

EXOTIC ELEGANCE

THIS HOUSE IS NOT FOR EVERYBODY — its size, location and price range limit it to the discriminating few who want quality and prime location and "extras". Besides, it's a bit daring.

LOTS OF ROOM for Living and Entertaining — Large center hall opens to—Living room with fireplace, company-sized dining room; and the Bedroom area.

Huge Master Bedroom and Sitting room and dressing room and private bath — actually could be made into two large Bedrooms.

Simply beautiful paneled and beamed Family room with rugged red-brick fireplace with charming bay window overlooking the De Luxe SWIMMING POOL.

Separate "Mother-in-Law Suite with Bedroom, Sitting room, Bath and complete Kitchen and its own entrance.

Partial basement with physical equipment and filtering system for pool.

FROM THE OUTSIDE — this is a custom-built dignified, conventional French Provincial.

INSIDE — the decor explodes with a riot of color all done in excellent taste by a decorator and all of the best quality — we could write pages about the details but if you have ever wanted to dare to use tangerine and gold and blue-green and bronze and were afraid to try it, this you must see!

EXTRAS—to mention only a few — gold leaf designs on the wash bowls, lush carpeting and luxurious draperies — dado and clever wall-paper treatments — 2 air-conditioners.
