In New Quarters

FRANKLIN—The time finally arrived in the town that time is supposed to have forgotten. Just recently the Franklin village offices moved to its new quarters on Franklin Road in the heart of town. Councilmen who convened for the first time in the new facilities are, (from left, clockwise) Edward Green, William Kahn, Robert Winkle, Cal Thomas. Clerk Elsie Garwood, Don Hunter and Eugene Kelly.

Ex-S'field Man Admits Murdering Prison Inmate

SOUTHFIELD—A 23-year-old former Southfield resident, now serving sentence at Ionia for armed robbery, will be charged with first-degree murder, Ionia Warden George Krupp said. Robert Cottee admitted the slaying of another inmate, Gerald MacKay, 25, whose body was found in a prison passageway in a storage area. MacKay, a convicted slayer, called Cottee a "stooge," the former Southfield man told the warden.

NOW SERVING a 3-15-year sentence, Cottee pleaded guilty to the Nov. 5, 1950 holdup of a motel clerk in Royal Oak. The dead man was serving a 15-30 year sentence for second-degree murder in the 1950 slaying of Carlo Vitale, a Detroit hoodlum. MacKay's body was found by a prison guard while the prison was being searched to locate him. He was missed at the noon check. He had been struck several times over the head with a crowbar.

COTTEE SAID he "had a grudge against him (MacKay) for a long time. He was making life miserable for me."

Cottee said he told MacKay he had some whiskey hidden in the passageway and when MacKay bent over to look for the bottle, Cottee said, he struck him several times. Cottee was sentenced February, 1961. MacKay had been at Ionia since June, 1960.

Sought in Holdup Of S'field Firm; Turns Himself In

SOUTHFIELD—A 33-year-old Detroit man, identified recently by employees of the Sibley Lumber Co. in a $1,700 robbery on Nov. 13 turned himself in to Southfield police Sunday.

Max A. Montcalm pleaded guilty before Southfield Municipal Judge Clarence A. Reid, Jr. Monday afternoon. Bond was set at $15,000. Montcalm is being held in Oakland County Jail.

He will be arraigned in county circuit court Monday.

MONTCALM TOLD police he returned from California after calling his mother long distance. He was traced through his auto registration by detectives and photographs from which the identification was made were provided by his family.

The lumber company was held up after closing time at 7 p. m. Three shots were fired in the store, according to employees Donald McNeil, Detroit, and Francis P. DeJodder, St. Clair Shores.

THE TWO EMPLOYEES and store manager Charles Fletcher were forced back into the store by the robber who ordered them to open the safe and put the money in a bag. He then fired a shot and ordered them to the back of the store. McNeil said he threw some merchandise at the robber who fired two more shots and fled in a 1957 Cadillac.
