Wedding Date Drawing Near

A bridesmaids luncheon climaxed the round of parties and showers for bride-elect Lyla Steele, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Steele of Hoyane Drive, Birmingham. She will become the bride of Robert Mayer, son of Mrs. Stephen Mayer of Pasadena, Calif., and the late Mr. Mayer, on Saturday at the First Presbyterian Church of Birmingham.

MRS. A. B. FROST, the bride-elect's aunt, was hostess at a luncheon on Sept. 28. A surprise kitchen and recipe shower was given at the home of Mrs. Edward Draheim of Royal Oak and on Sept. 22, Mrs. James Auchterlonie of Franklin opened her home with co-hostess Mrs. Jack Seibold of Lansing for a miscellaneous shower. Sept. 10 was the date Mrs. H. Rotter of Detroit chose for a buffet dinner for the relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Mayer of Chicago, cousins of Bobs, will join the wedding party at a rehearsal dinner Friday evening.

Board of Education Members to Attend Harlan PTA Meet

The entire Birmingham Board of Education will be at the Harlan School PTA meeting Wednesday evening at 8. Board members will discuss the goals of the school system and answer parents' questions relative to methods of achieving these goals.

The program is planned to help Harlan PTA members become better acquainted with the administration of local schools. PTA president, William Gordon will conduct the business meeting preceding the program.

St. Dunstan's Present First Play of Season

"Send Me No Flowers," a three-act comedy about a commuter whose hobby is hydroponics, has been selected by St. Dunstan's for their first show of the 1961-62 season. There will be public performances of the show on Oct. 20, 21, 22 and 23 and also on Oct. 26, when it will be staged for the benefit of The Village Woman's Club Scholarship Fund for Camp Oakland Girls' Ranch.

FOLLOWING the highly successful practice started last year, the audience is requested to wear formal dress for the Oct. 20 performance. The playhouse on Lone Pine Road will be suitably decorated for this gala opening, complete with red carpeting and marquee, specially installed at the entrance for the "first nighters."

"Send Me No Flowers" opens the 51st season for St. Dunstan's, whose lively production of "Guys and Dolls" drew capacity audiences last June.

A CAST that includes some of St. Dunstan's top talent is now in rehearsal for the show, under the direction of Mrs. Franklin Donagan, an experienced veteran of both the professional and amateur stage.
