Local Residents Host 2 California Visitors

BRACES—The R. W. Krommer home on Darramoor Drive will be increased by two very welcome visitors when daughters-in-law, Mrs. Robert Krommer, and granddaughter Paula arrive shortly from California. They will stay at the Krommer home until Robert is discharged from the Marines.

An annual stag cookout turned into a farewell party for Bob Landers recently. Dick Bergman, Darramoor Drive, entertained 20 staff members of Linkbelt, the firm he works for. Cocktails and lots of singing concluded the evening.

The first PTA meeting of the year was held at Walnut Lake School on Sept. 26. Frank Vaclavik, president, and the PTA board were on hand to introduce all the room mothers.

The proposed PEA budget was distributed and discussed for the new year's work began. Several items of a serious nature will be discussed in the near future and Vaclavik is aiming for full attendance by all parents.

An SOS is out for mothers who have a few hours to spare for help in the library.

The home of the Charles Overton on Darramoor has been bubbling over with houseguests. First Mrs. and Mrs. Jay Daniels with daughter, Diane, came from Audubon, N. J. and spent a week. Soon after, Margie Duffin arrived from Haddon Heights, N. J. for a week's stay.

WALNUT LAKE — For a boy's Troop 41 can look forward to a fast moving new year beginning with a trip along the Au Sable River near Grayling.

A father and son cook-out will also see the Michigan-Purdue game.

Art Brooks, Troop 41 Scoutmaster, on behalf of the committee and Walnut Lake School, may be contacted by boys interested in becoming members of this troop. Meetings are held on Thursdays at 8 p.m. in the multipurpose room of the school.

Ed Wray has accepted the job of assistant principal at the school. He served in the capacity of committee man and for the last two years has been Webster's Leader.

Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Lloyd of Westmor Drive and their four youngsters, John, E. Susan, Wendy, 6, and Katie, 3, are moving to Dallas, Texas. Lloyd has been transferred to a subsidiary of Drilling and Service, Inc.

A bridal shower was hosted by Mrs. Donald Irwin, Mrs. Otto Whitteman and Mrs. Stewart Schuller at the home of Mrs. Irwin on Westmor Drive Sept. 28.

The honored guest was Marie, daughter of Mrs. Kenneth Bielby, also of Westmor Drive, who will marry Robert Gleson Squiers on Saturday at the First Presbyterian Church in Dearborn.

A personal shower was given for her recently by Sharon Smiley and Terry McGinnis. Ten members of the First Presbyterian Hospital, where Marie is employed, were present.

Barbara Shank served as honor attendant and bridesmaids were JoAnne DeKonock, Mrs. J. M. a s leader and Mrs. Edna. They wore tulle chantilly lace and taffeta dresses and carried bouquets of amaryllis with yellow rose buds.

Margaret Bielby, aunt of the bride-elect, was also present, as was the mother of the bride, Mrs. Robert Squiers, and his sister, Mrs. Lincoln Parker.

Carolyn May Killing Weds J. G. MacFarlan

St. James Episcopal Church was the scene Thursday evening for the marriage of Carolyn May Killing and James George MacFarlan. The Rev. Kenneth Geas performed the 7 o'clock ceremony in the presence of 350 guests.

The double ring ceremony was performed for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hall Killing Jr., of Eastman Street, Birmingham, and the son of Mrs. Alexander McVear of Webster Street and the late Mr. George MacFarlan.

THE BRIDE'S gown was white chantilly lace featuring a sabbina neckline and long tapering sleeves. Her bouffant hair of white tulle featured a scalloped chantilly lace detail on the top. A crystal tiara held her fingertip veil of silk illusion in place. She carried a cascade of Stephanotis lilies and lily.

Trio Visit Australia On Five-Month Tour

Mrs. Arthur Vikander of Far Hill Drive, a native of Sidney, Australia, took her two children, Brian and Diana, on a five-month sojourn to the land "down under" this summer. They left from San Francisco in May, sailing on the "Harpoon" cruise ship. Along the way they made stops at Tahiti, the Cook Islands and New Zealand.

At the visit arrangements Mr. and Mrs. William Fisher, in Sidney, and friends in Melbourne and Cairns, the children attended English schools and joined in English sports. On their trip home they visited the Philippines, Samoa and Honolulu.

Twenty-two years ago, while working at the Red Cross, a group of girls formed a "birthday club" and a social group. The club has been going strong all through the years.

On Friday this same group will be meeting at the North Adams Road home of Mrs. Marcus Green for luncheon and an afternoon of cards. Attending will be club members Mrs. John Mustafa of Wing Lake, Mrs. K. C. Milne of Dearborn, Mrs. William Pike of Royal Oak, Mrs. Geraldine of Birmingham, Mrs. Carl Durbin, Mrs. Claude Gilbert and Mrs. Earl Baxter of Detroit.

A houseguest at the Gerald Swift home on Butternut Hill Drive for the past 10 days has been Mrs. Alice Beider of Pompano Beach, Fla. During her stay Mrs. Swift entertained at a dinner party, inviting Detroit friends of Mrs. Beider's.

The William Routes of Robson Lane and the Bert Pitts of Lenox Road will be among the throngs of football fans departing for the Michigan-Missouri State game at Ann Arbor on Oct. 14.

At dawn on Saturday the Shawnee Tribe of the Indian Guides will be leaving, laden down with canoes, camping equipment and food for a weekend in the wilds along the Au Sable River.

The boys have chosen a primitive site for their stay and plan on canoeing on both Saturday and Sunday. The tribesmen accompanying on the trek are Chuck and Ricky Amann, Bill and Chuck Route, John and Steve Bell, George, Matt and Bill Bee, Bob and Greg Clark, Ed and Craig Brown, Lyle and Mike Oriant, Bob and Mike Fitzley, Bob and Randy Montgomery.

Mrs. Donald Hacker, district chairman of the United Foundation Drive in Bloomfield, held a "cocktail coffee" in her home on Lenox Road a morning last week. Assisting Mrs. Hacker was Mrs. Robert Ruck of Bayberry, area chairman.

Mrs. Hacker's working committee includes area residents Mrs. W. E. Underdown of Viny Lane, Mrs. R. J. Stewart of Westview, Mrs. Donald Hyde of S. Reading Road, Mrs. James May, Mrs. A. D. Prentiss of East Lake, H. Zimmerman of N. Reading Road.

Others are Mrs. Gordon Doherty, Mrs. D. Hooper and Mrs. William Ku of Lenox Road, Mrs. L. W. Swindler of E. Long Lake, Mrs. W. Hines of Romney Road and Mrs. D. B. Sampson of Robson Lane.

A dessert-bridge was hosted by Mrs. William Rette in her home on E. Haney one on Thursday evening. The group, all of Kenton subdivision, meet semi-monthly in the area.

The Donald Hackers of Lenox Road journeyed this week to Campbell, Wis. for a family reunion with the "Sena Clan." It has been five years since the last gathering of the clan.

The Harlan School PTA has inited the entire Birmingham School Board to its Oct. 11 meeting at 8 p.m. The topic of discussion will be "Goals and Objectives of the Birmingham School System." Each Board of Education member will talk about some phase of how these goals will be achieved. A question and answer period will follow.

The annual Harlan Book Fair will take place Oct. 9, 10 and 11. Books will be on display in the school library during the school hours, and before and after the October PTA meeting. This will give parents an opportunity to buy or order for future delivery books for children on their Christmas and Birthday lists. This annual fund raising event will benefit the school library.

Donald Cornett, son of the Fred Cornett of Hickory Heights Drive, decided early this summer on military school. He chose Stanton Military Academy in Stanton, Va., and entered the academy on Sept. 12. One of his first reports home was the title of making the rifle team. Donald's first vacation will be Christmas at home.

Mrs. Henry Kezarian of Highwood Drive, a director in the Birmingham Bloomfield Needlework Guild, will be entertaining at a luncheon to help further the cause. Those in the area attending the luncheon will be totting an article of new clothing that will be passed along to the "gathering." It will be held on Oct. 10 at the Unitarian Church of Birmingham.

The Thomas Landis family are newcomers to Upton Circle Drive, northwest of Pittsford, Pa. Their children are Linda, 12, a student at Derby Junior High, Michael, 11, and Chris, 6, attending Harlan School. Landis is affiliated with metallurgical products of General Electric Co. Among their interests are golf and skiing.

Home from a southern sojourn are the George Robbs of Pine Hill Drive. Much of their two weeks were spent in Florida and Hollywood, Lexington, Ky. was visited twice by the Robbs who were intrigued with the horse country.

Pietly Hill Plans Guest Day for '61

One of the highlights of Pietly Hill's annual picnic, which is different it arouses in prospective DAR members. Every year visitors to the show who are eligible for the DAR express an interest in the activities of Pietly Hill and then are invited to attend a meeting and apply for membership in the Birmingham-Bloomfield Hills chapter.

Guest day will be Guest Day for 1961 and all prospective members are invited to attend. The meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Ferd. Brock, 3677 Brookside, Bloomfield Hills, at 1:00 p.m.

"Masthead Songs and Ballads" will be narrated by Mrs. Carl Binkie and Mrs. Newell Allen as pianist. Following the meeting tea will be served by this month's hostesses.

They are Madama John Hauser, Charles Buttar, William Farrington, Francis Fisher, Steele Sellers, Leonard Guesz, George Hill, Everett Allen and Buri Norton.
