

Southfield High

Three Southfield High seniors have been named National Merit Scholarship semifinalists. They are James W. Taylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Ferguson, 24701 Lois Lane; Roger Mack, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur W. Steele; Jeanette; and John M. 19071, son of Mr. and Mrs. John O. Steele, 11835 Dorset.

Junior Jim Voss has been named as president of the Southfield High Debate Club for the 1961-62 season, sponsor Ruth Vigna announced this week.

Other officers named are senior Deborah Zimmerman, vice-president; sophomore Bob Stevens, secretary; Junior Richard Bohn, treasurer; and Junior Paula Levitt, librarian.

Jim received highest honors in extemporaneous speaking and debate at the 1961 Summer High School Communication Arts Institute at Michigan State University.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Voss of 21490 Evergreen, he rated first of the 54 students who were selected to attend the advanced foreign course upon the recommendation of their coaches from Michigan and surrounding states.

In his career of official record, Jim, with his partner Marshall Zumberg, has been defeated only once against 17 victors.

Seven other Southfield students attended one of the forensics sessions at MSU this summer. They were Marshall Zumberg, Deborah Zimmerman, Richard Bohn, Paula Levitt, Linda McCreir, Ann Arney, and Les Brewer.

Twenty-four Southfield High School students and their two debate coaches left the high school by school bus Sept. 23 to attend the debate clinic at Western Michigan University, Kalamazoo.

The debaters heard speeches by "Dramaticus," the Groves drama club really got under way with try-outs on September 25, 26, and 27. The fall play this year will be "Berkeley Square" by John L. Baldrason.

At a farewell picnic last spring the 1961-62 Dramaticus officers were chosen. The new president is Bryan Carpenter; vice-president, Jimi Melke; secretary, Judy Barlow; and Bruce Eisk, treasurer.

Also a new post was added by a vote of the membership—the position of historian. Both Koenig was elected to fill this position.

In an organizational board meeting, under the direction of Dramaticus sponsor, Miss Bilgus, the board chose the class board members. Tom Wood and Hans Kupper were elected senior representatives and Kathy Braden and Diane Loppnow were chosen junior and sophomore representatives respectively.

The junior class of Groves is sponsoring a sock-hop after the Friday night football game on Friday.

AFS is sponsoring a dance on Oct. 27. Students attending the dance are to dress in costumes from various foreign countries.

The student government of Groves is sponsoring a semi-formal dance with Seaholm High School on Nov. 23. The dance will be given in the Groves gymnasium. Bob Rice is the chairman of the dance.

The second annual "powderpuff" football game is being presented on Oct. 17. A powderpuff football game is when the girls of each school compete against girls of another grade. On Oct. 17 the sophomores and juniors compete and on Oct. 25 the winning team will play against the senior girls.

The games are sponsored by the varsity cheerleaders and are directed by Miss Moore. Profits go to the winner of the second game.

FOR THE FIRST TIME this year "The Talon," Groves yearbook, was judged and rated by The National School Yearbook Association. The book received a B+ rating.

The newspaper was also rated this year by the National Scholastic Press Association. The newspaper received a first place rating.
