

UF Volunteers Begin Organizing In Franklin Area

FRANKLIN—Volunteer neighborhood solicitors for the 1961 Torch Fund drive are attending organizational coffee at the homes of the district chairman.

On Sept. 26, Mrs. John Donaldson of Wellington Road gave out information and instructions on the one day campaign scheduled for Oct. 16.

At the same time Mrs. John Anger combined her group with Mrs. Thomas Demery's at the Demery home on Christie Hills Drive to go over campaign details.

ANOTHER COMBINATION coffee will be held today at the Dennis drive home of Mrs. Philip Howler with volunteers under Mrs. H. E. Hilboe joining the group.

On Oct. 5, Mrs. Theodore Hop-

'Friends' of Library Organize in Franklin

FRANKLIN — A whole new wonderful era is dawning for the Franklin Community Library.

With larger new quarters being prepared, under village hospitality the formation of a Friends of Library group was born Monday in an enthusiastic gathering at the home of Mrs. Max Miller on Franklin Road.

First and foremost, the "Friends" have planned a Franklin Forum, which will be a series of four talks, starting in November.

Mrs. Charles Peterson, author and artist of several nationally known "first" books on nature will launch the series with a talk and demonstration of "How a Book is Put Together". Other carefully selected and planned programs will be announced, for which tickets will be available from Mrs. Samuel Gavne, Mrs. Robert DeLonge or Mrs. D. Chapin. The proceeds from these will augment the library membership fund, in need of a little extra support since enlargement plans have materialized.

Mrs. Paul Robertson is chairman of the Friends group. Mrs. R. Griffin was elected secretary with Mrs. Richard Barnard and Mrs. Harold DeOrlow handling publicity.

The Friends are also special plans for children's events, with Mrs. R. Baskin, Mrs. John Faulkner and Mrs. Homer Heiseman cooking up fun ideas to increase youthful interest in the newly enlarged library.

Best of all, anyone in the area can become a Friend to the library. Unlike other auxiliary groups, the Friends have no dues to pay. A call to Mrs. Robertson, or any

Millage Increase PTA Topic Oct. 9 At Franklin School

FRANKLIN—Of special interest to all residents, not only the parents of Franklin School Children, is the Oct. 9 PTA meeting topic "Franklin School's Stake in the November Election".

A panel of experts with Dr. Otis Diekey, Birmingham school superintendent; Daniel Nesbitt, deputy superintendent; George Coombis, Jr., and Richard Barnard, school board members; Pell Hollingshead and Nicholas Rosiello will discuss the important 2.6 millage increase which is to appear on the ballot. The future expansion of Franklin School is dependent on the outcome of this issue in the November election.

Scheduled to start at 8:08 p.m., the discussion will be followed by refreshments served by the mothers of kindergarten children. Mrs. Ansel Sackett and Mrs. Francis Dozier Jr. are in charge of arrangements.
