

New Correspondent

BEVERLY HILLS—Phyllis Zuidema, 16996 Elizabeth, will be the new social correspondent for the village. She replaces Mary (Mrs. Robert) Wilde, who has resigned. Mrs. Zuidema, a resident of Beverly Hills for seven years, is the mother of five children—Suzanne, 14; Philip, 11; Elise, 10; Lori, 8; and Craig, 5.

supper at Greenfield school last week was a successful venture. A total of 817 people dined there. Pierce was excellent, thanks to all the volunteer help.

A former member of the Detroit Lions, Jack Simmons of Elizabeth Street with his wife Rosemary, Scolved an old Lions tradition Sunday by meeting some of his former teammates and friends at Larcio inn for cocktails and dinner following the opening game of the season.

Dr. & Mrs. A. B. Schiffer of Vernon Drive, recently returned from a surgical convention in South Bend.

THE BEVERLYS—The pancake breakfast at Greenfield school last week was a success. A total of 817 people dined there. Pierce was excellent, thanks to all the volunteer help.

The shortest move on record this fall was when Dr. and Mrs. Neal Brady and their four children hopped from Devonshire to 1904 Riverside Drive.

There are two new arrivals on W. Rutland. Both are firsts. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brodovics have a little girl, Beth, now three months old. Mr. and Mrs. Rex Millsap also have a girl, Debra Ann, born Aug. 24.

Mr. & Mrs. Glenn Sharpe of Auburn Drive entertained their pot luck group last Saturday night.

Twenty couples received invitations in the shape of a fire hat for their unit Surprise Fire shower held last Friday at the home of the Burton Bouwamps on Whetstone.

City Administrator Jerald Stone was asked to arrange a meeting aimed at establishing the figure already proposed by Lathrup as a rate of nine-tenths cent per second of flow (CFS) for 1,000 persons as a compromise between conflicting state and county proposals.

THE STATE health department wants the rate set at 1 1/2 CFS; the County DPW had asked for a rate of four-tenths CFS but go, along with the higher state rate.

The "horseshoe" held the first monthly meeting of their neighborhood bridge club at the home of Mrs. Stuart Scheffle of East Rutland. Newcomer, Mrs. William Moulton, was invited to join the group.

You have all heard of those unusual coincidences that occur every day, but here is one that happened to two party families in Beverly. The Eric Risberg moved to 81148 Pierce from Adams Road and the Marty Walkers to 3127 Pierce from Detroit.

Being next-door neighbors, they got to talking in the yard one day and discovered that both women had graduated from MSU in speech correction. Both husbands had graduated from the same high school in Gary, Ind. Neither had known the other before.

Eric Risberg is a supervisor for system computer analysis with the Burroughs Corp. Joy teaches fourth grade at Harlan School.

Marty Walker is an insurance underwriter in charge of the moving department at the City of New York. They moved here Sept. 1 and have a boy, Mark, 1 1/2.

Eggs a-la-poddenred, date and blueberry muffins, juice and coffee, was the menu Tuesday evening served at Ascension Lutheran Church in charge of the event was Mrs. Gretchen Bratton. Her committee included the pastors of the area, Rev. N. Nielsen, Rev. Peter Vermiere, Carl Betley, Edward Barr, Al Mayorchak and Raymond Kietz.

Women of the church and their friends attended. Proceeds will buy materials to make vesties for Lutheran World Relief.

Some 40 neighborhood neighbors and friends of the Kirkwood Club's next event is planned for Oct. 27 and will be a costume party. Incidentally, the very successful meeting of the club recent week was sparked with several cocktail parties just beforehand.

Two in the Casino of Sunset Drive hosted four couples. Their Club's next event is planned for Oct. 27 and will be a costume party.

Celebrate Birthday With Surprise Party

LATHRUP—The plot thickened when Mr. and Mrs. Fred Corbett dined out Friday night. With the assistance of daughter Mrs. Robert Heine of Detroit, long-time friends were ushered into the family home on Cambridge, all ready to show "Surprise" to Mr. Corbett when the couple returned.

The year's agenda of the Lathrup Women's Club is an exciting one. The November meeting will feature a lecture on "Charm" by Claire Elias and such large attendance is expected that the group will meet at the Community Congregational Church.

For December's meeting, a timely subject will be presented by Stan Kabran whose topic is "Holiday Flower Arrangements." Robert D. Wyatt will be the January speaker and he will discuss "Democracy Today and Tomorrow."

Finally there will be a discussion of "The Humorous Side of Marriage" by Owen Morgan in conjunction with other goodies to follow to complete the season.
