Methodist Church Scene Of Afternoon Ceremony

First Methodist Church of Birmingham was the scene Saturday afternoon for the marriage of Sue Ann Benscoter and Gerald Davis. Dr. Arnold Runkel performed the 2 o'clock ceremony.
Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Benscoter of W. Lincoln Street, Birmingham, and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Davis of Searo, Mich.
HAROLD DAVID, brother of the bridegroom, stood as best man. Ushers were Roy McClusky, James Robin, Gerald Lesh and Roger Benscoter.
For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Benscoter chose a light beige brocaded silk dress with brown accessories and white rosebuds.
Maid of honor was Janice Benscoter and bridesmaids were Judy Porritt and Joy Locke. They wore sapphire blue delustrated satin sheaths designed with scooped necklines and short sleeves. They carried white fugi mums with clusters of yellow daisies.

MRS. GERALD DAVIS
The mother of the bridegroom selected a kelly green, velvet dress with matching accessories. Both mothers had orchid corsages. Following a reception in the church parlors, the newlyweds left for northern Canada.
