tration at Columbia. Youngest son John, 22, born to Anna and her second husband, the late newspaper publisher John Boettiger, was married last year, and is completing a doctorate in international politics at Columbia.

Marriage to Dr. Halsted in 1952 brought new news. Public relations jobs at hospitals, clinics and medical schools he has served. Then jobs doing "everything I wasn't trained to do" in Iran from 1958 to 1960, while Dr. Halsted was teaching and revamping the administration at the University of Shiraz on a Fulbright grant.

STILL ENJOYING the casual life, she and Dr. Halsted installed a softball field and horseshoe pits on their grounds, along with the badminton nets and croquet wickets.

On "quiet nights", the Halsted listens to records and read extensively . . . mostly about world affairs. "We're early risers, get up around six, and read in the morning, too."

Children's Theatre Starts Workshop Scholarship

Mawr studying for a Doctor's Degree. Cathy Campbell is the first woman to be awarded the Alexander Grange Scholarship. Previous winners have been: Bob Joharijan, R. Diney Stenberg, Bruce Osgood, Woody King, and Cliff Fraser.

Cathy Campbell's father is an executive with the Boy Scouts of America, so the family lived in many cities. She attended Alma College where she acted in original plays with the Alma Theatians. During Miss Campbell's three years at the University of Michigan she was active in theatre, appearing in Richard II.

She left for England in 1957, where she became an apprentice with the Bradford Children's Theatre, county of Yorkshire. Cathy toured England for eight months with this company, playing in two original plays, and staying in English homes—which were known as "digs".

ON HER return Cathy organized and directed the Pontiac Community Theatre which produced plays at the Will Rogers Elementary School where she taught for two years. Registrations for the Fall Term at Will-O-Way will remain open through November 1.

Tea in Bloomfield

A tea will be given Monday at the home of Mrs. Charles L. Wilson, Jr. in Bloomfield Hills to introduce Sandra Severo of Detroit's own Severo Ballet. Many interested and artistically-minded residents of the Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills area have been invited. Assisting Mrs. Wilson are Mrs. Carson Button, Mrs. Robert Wardrop and Mrs. Robert Taylor.

MSUO Community Arts Council's Membership Drive

This week the MSUO-Community Arts Council goes into the final stretch of its membership drive. Donald Button, campaign chairman, reports that a check of area representatives show the Council at the halfway mark in ticket sales.

The organization, presenting its first series, is offering four major programs at Pontiac Northern High School auditorium and eight on-campus functions featuring lesser known groups and personalities.

MRS. A. A. Mill of Quanton Road is handling sales for the series in the Birmingham area.

Pontiac representative will open the season Oct. 17 at MSUO's Student Center. Eugene List, pianist, is the first major artist to be presented. He will appear at Pontiac Northern High Nov. 7.

Engagement Told

Mr. and Mrs. Jack M. Slean, 1336 Juniper Lane, Bloomfield Hills, announce the engagement of their daughter, Mary Ann, to Lantz L. Mackey, Jr., son of the senior Mackeys of San Jose, Lathrup Village. The announcement was made at a dinner party Oct. 7 at the home of the bride-elect's parents. A spring wedding is planned.
