ock, Mrs. John Tobbin, Mrs. Lewy Vanderveer and Mrs. Edna Flint; and down the steps are Mrs. Edward Turner, Mrs. Louis Savage, Mrs. Herbert Mason, Mrs. J. H. Otis, Mrs. Leslie Green, Mrs. Frederick Weed and Mrs. Joseph Henshaw.

Franklin Community Church Scene of Afternoon Rites

Franklin Community Church was the scene Saturday for the marriage of Judith Ann Marshall to Richard Earnest Sumner. The Rev. Hugh Clifford White performed the 4 o'clock ceremony in the presence of 200 guests.

Given in marriage by her father, Judith wore a gown of white skinner satin designed with a portrait neckline appliqued with chantilly lace, a fitted bodice, tapering sleeves, full skirt and chapel train.

A DOUBLE crown of pearls secured her silk illusion ballerina length veil. She carried a bouquet of white fuji mums.

Mrs. Gerald Alyea served as honor attendant and bridesmaids were Mrs. James Alvin Sumner, Gloria Thompson and Dorothy Witz. They were attired in satin sheath gowns with matching overskirt, peach champagne veiled hats and accessories to match the gown. Bouquets consisted of rust fuji mums.

JAMES ALVIN SUMNER, brother of the bridegroom, stood as best man. Ushers were Richard Lear, Stephen Marshall and Edward

MRS. RICHARD SUMNER

Sprague. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Marshall chose a moss green lace dress with matching accessories and veiled hat of various shades of green. The bridegroom's mother selected a coco brown silk dress with matching accessories and veiled hat of beige with accents of coco brown.

FOLLOWING the double ring ceremony, guests were greeted in the church parlor. For her wedding trip to New England, the new Mrs. Sumner wore a red-orange wool suit with matching velvet hat trimmed in black.

They will make their home in Warren.

Name Contact Men For Torch Drive Culture Series Opens Tonight at Marian High

Richard A. Schroeter, 1662 N. Glenary, Birmingham, manager of The J. L. Hudson Co.'s Northside store and United Foundation associate chairman of Chapter Office, announced the appointment of the following contact men who will call on business firms in southern Oakland County during the coming campaign:

They are Charles Budd of Bendix Corp.; Ed George of the Detroit Edison Co.; Willard Keefe, J. L. Hudson Co.; Douglas Lent, D. E. Lent Co.; Robert Perry, Northland Center; Ross Rife, Eby Corp. (Ferndale); William Thompson, J. L. Hudson Co.; Robert Weston, Michigan Bell; and Clyde Williams, J. L. Hudson Co.

In announcing the appointments, Schroeter said that Torch dollars enabled 195 health services and character-building agencies in the area to carry on a year around program of providing health where there is illness, happiness where there is sadness, hope where there is despair.

This year's United Foundation Torch Drive gets under way Oct. 17 with a goal of $18,316,741.

Dr. John Murra, expert on African affairs and African specialist for the United Nations Secretariat, will open the six-program Holy Name Culture Series this evening at Marian high school auditorium, Lahar and 13 1/2 Mile.

Subject of Dr. Murra's lecture, which begins at 8:30 p.m., will be "Crisis in Africa: Causes and Cures".

Dr. Murra is a professor of anthropology at Yale university, a member of the board of the American Committee on Africa and director of its research committee, and a member of the educational advisory committee of the African-American Student Foundation.

Romney a VP Of Convention

George Romney, Oakland County's delegate-at-large to the Constitutional Convention in Lansing, was elected a vice president of Con-Con Oct. 4.

Romney, a Bloomfield Hills resident, is chairman of Citizens for Michigan and president of American Motors Corp. He is a Republican.

He was one of three vice presidents elected, two Republicans and one Democrat.

Romney lost the Con-Con presidency to Republican Stephen S. Nisbet, businessman, educator and former state official from Fremont.
