

Wellesley Alums Celebrate 50th Anniversary

Members of the Birmingham Wellesley College alumnae club and friends of the college have been invited to a double celebration on Wednesday evening at the Statler-Hilton in Detroit.

The president of Wellesley, Miss Margaret Clapp, will fly to Detroit that day to be speaker at a Wellesley banquet, at which friends of the college from all parts of the state will be present. The party will also be a celebration of the 50th anniversary of the founding of the Detroit Wellesley Club.

IN HER visit here next week,

President Clapp will bring local alumnae further details of the generous offer of the Ford Foundation to Wellesley, which could mean as much as $2,000,000 toward improvements in faculty salaries, in scholarships and in building.

Next Birmingham resident on the Wellesley roster is Jane Griffith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Griffith, 498 Sutherland Road, Birmingham, and graduate of Senham High School. Miss Griffith is a member of the class of 1965 at Wellesley.

Observes 31st Year

The Detroit Osteopathic Women's Club held its 31st Anniversary meeting luncheon Tuesday. Mrs. Joseph Wyatt of Birmingham was among the hostesses. Dr. Otis-tein Dressler spoke on "Our Destiny is What We Make It."

MR. AND MRS. ROBERT SQUIERS

Martha Ellen Bielby Weds Robert Squiers

First Presbyterian Church in Birmingham was the scene Oct. 7 for the marriage of Martha Ellen Bielby and Robert Gleason Squiers. Mr. John Mitchell performed the 11:30 ceremony in the presence of 125 guests.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Kenneth Bielby of Westmore Road, Birmingham, and the late Mr. Bielby. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Squiers of Normandy Road, Franklin.

MARTHA wore a pink chiffon ballerina length gown designed with a lace bodice, elbow length sleeves, round neckline and full skirt. A velvet band secured her shoulder length veil of silk illusion and she carried a bouquet of sweetheart roses and stephanotis.

Mrs. Jack McCraney of Spruce Street, Birmingham, served as matron of honor. She appeared in a turquoise street length chiffon dress and carried pink carnations and red roses. A matching band of veil secured her short veil.

JOHN McCraney stood as best man and ushers were Lincoln Park and Justin Bielby.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Bielby wore a silver grey brocade dress and red roses. The bridegroom's mother selected a beige silk dress and bronze roses. Following the double ring ceremony, guests were greeted at the home of the bride's mother.

The newlows are honeymooning in the Smoky Mountains. For traveling, the bride wore a green wool dress with matching accessories. They will live in Royal Oak.

A daughter, Lorie De, was born Oct. 14 to MR. AND MRS. ROBERT McVITTIE of Haynes Street, Birmingham. Mrs. McVittie is the former Lois Kraus. Great-grandparents are the Earl Fowlers of Buckingham Road, Birmingham. Paternal grandparents are the William McVittie of Detroit.

A son, Robert Bruce Jr., was born Oct. 14 to MR. AND MRS. ROBERT BRUCE HAMLY, 4363 Meadowlark, Birmingham. Grandparents are the P. H. Hamly of Birmingham and the E. J. Radenbergs of Lathrup.

Secretaries Meet

The members of the South Oakland Chapter of the National Secretaries Association enjoyed the panel discussion which followed the dinner meeting at the Paradise Cafe on Tuesday. The panel consisted of past officers of the Chapter who discussed various NSA activities in conjunction with Orientation Month.

Three-in-One
Guests at the Marian High School auditorium next Wednesday evening will see actress Muriel Wolfson enact scenes such as this as she portrays Ann Sullivan, the famed teacher of Helen Keller, in "Two Lives." An actress also will portray Helen's mother and Helen herself, in a transform monologue. The performance is sponsored by the Marian High Mothers Club and will be presented at 8:30. Those interested in attending may contact Mrs. E. MacColl, 2687 Penfield, Bloomfield Hills, who is in charge of ticket sales.

Birmingham-Bloomfield Hills Society Notes

By JOYCE KLARR
MI 6-1858

EVERYBODY wants to get into the act!

And almost everybody DOES around here. Take this week as an example, when the odor of hum in the air is so thick you can almost slice it. St. Dunstan's will have their black tie opening tomorrow night of "Send Me No Flowers." Village Players are drawing crowds with their musical production of "The Boy Friend" and Junior Leagueurs had their follies try out last night for their November show which is bound to be a smash. Our residents are still flocking down to the new Fisher to see "The Gay Life" and already are looking forward to "La Plume de ma Tante" which opens next week.

Outward Bound

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Bennett left this week for a leisurely trip to Hawaii with a week's visit in San Francisco on their agenda.

Homing Pigeons

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Teal have returned home from their European tour.

Reunion

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Moon entertained the group they skied with last year in Switzerland for dinner and among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. William Winkler, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Muzzy, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Weir, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Cretzinger and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Woolfenden. The latter were home for a weekend visit from Mr. Woolfenden's con-con sessions in Lansing.

First Nighters

St. Dunstan's have scheduled many dinner parties before their opening tomorrow night and among the hosts for the formal affair are Mr. and Mrs. William Saunders, Mr. and Mrs. Garvin Beaden, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Himmelhoch, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Darragh and Mrs. Janet Martin. Mrs. Martin's guest list includes Mr. and Mrs. John Coplin, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Skinner, Mr. and Mrs. Tim King, Mrs. William Beatty, Mr. Fred Gnef and Mr. Charles Klingensmith.

Mr. and Mrs. Marcus E. Cunningham stayed at the Plaza during their recent New York theater expedition.

Bridge It

Bloomfield Hills country club ladies had their monthly bridge and style show yesterday and among the guests were Mrs. L. C. Good, Mrs. J. A. Frost, Mrs. G. A. Brown, Mrs. W. J. Semb and Mrs. J. E. Goodman.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Craig celebrated their 20th wedding anniversary at the DAC with a family dinner.

Football Fans

Mr. and Mrs. George T. Trumbull, Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Nowell will host a weekend party at their home for the Indiana-Michigan State game. University of Michigan alumni in the area plan on bringing the kids for the big homecoming picnic at Ferry Field in Ann Arbor this Saturday. One hundred fraternities, sororities and dormitories will have displays with an international flavor on their front lawns for the game with Purdue.

Mrs. F. J. Jeffers is entertainment chairman in charge of the luncheon and Fall fashion show scheduled tomorrow for the ladies at Fine Lake golf and country club.

Nice for Naas

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Naas and their three children will be leaving soon for a two-year business assignment in Zurich, Switzerland (if you gotta go, what better place?) and friends have been hon-

Faculty Wives Meet

The Faculty Wives Club of the University of Detroit will meet 12:30 p.m. Wednesday for a business meeting and pot-luck luncheon at the home of Mrs. Alphonse A. Toppo, 28531 Lathrup Boulevard, Lathrup Village.

Bazaar To Be Held

Christ Child Society will present their annual Bazaar Oct. 27 at Cobo Hall. Committee members will relax the following evening at a dinner dance at the Country Club of Detroit. Birmingham couples will leave from the Birmingham Athletic Club for the dance.

Among the hosts were Mrs. William Lilley, who gave a coffee, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Spence, a dinner and Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Peterson a pot luck supper. Mrs. Naas's parents, the William Spiegels honored them with a dinner at the DAC.

Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Ginnam will be moving soon to Richmond, Ind., and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Huntoon gave a bon voyage party in their honor last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hubbard entertained at a cocktail supper last weekend for 25 of their friends.
