

Guests Entertained

Mr. and Mrs. James E. Lickley of Northgate Drive, Cranbrook Village, entertained former Detroiters, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Sutton, at a cocktail party in their home. Co-hostess was Mrs. Willard Clark of Detroit. Among guests attending were Mr. and Mrs. Aiden Walker of Bloomfield, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Dell of Royal Oak, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Thudorf of Northgate Drive. The Suttons have returned to their new home in Naples, Fla.

Newlywed R. W. Lemons
Honeymooning in Florida

Our Lady of Refuge in Orchard Lake was the setting Oct. 7 for the marriage of Jane Considine and Ralph Wade Lemons. The Rev. G. L. Bartel performed at the noon ceremony.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. James W. Considine of Orchard Lake and Mr. and Mrs. James G. Lemons of Covington, Va.

THE BRIDE wore a gown of pearl-lustred duchess silk which reflected the graceful lines of a Renaissance Court dress. The modded bodice, trimmed in alençon lace, was richly embroidered in pearls and iridescent paillettes. Her fingertip veil of silk illusion was secured by a Swedish crown of pearl and iridescent paillettes. She carried a prayer book with staphanotis, ivy and white lilies.

Linda Considine, sister of the bride, served as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. E. Louis Haan, Mrs. Martin S. Kilsdonk and Patricia Stanton.

THEY WORE floor length gowns of antique gold satin with matching gold beaded pieces and carried baskets of fugi mums with ivy. Candice Haan, flower girl, was dressed in gold velvet fashioned after the bridesmaids' gowns and she carried a miniature basket of the same flowers.

James R. Lemons served as best man for his brother and ushers were William J. Lemons, Wayne Lemons, James W. Considine Jr., Casey Reigle and James Rendish.

FOR HER daughter's wedding, Mrs. Considine chose a teal blue lace dress with matching accessories. Mother of the bridegroom selected a beige lace with matching accessories. Both mothers had cymbidium orchids.

The bride's 91-year-old grandmother, Mrs. L. H. Layton Sr.,

wore a dress of plum silk with matching accessories.

A reception followed at Pine Lake Country Club. The newlyweds are honeymooning in Delray Beach, Fla.
