

Operation Friends' On in Westchester

WESTCHESTER—Mrs. Vernon Fitch of Middlebury Road entertained her "Operation Friends" committee Oct. 16 at a brunch.

Mrs. Fitch is civic improvement chairman for the Westchester W.N.F.G.A. As the head of the committee, she directs the greeting of new residents with growing plants and shrubs, which have been donated from the members own gardens. Attached to each gift is the name of the contributor, plus literature from the Department of Agriculture, Michigan State University.

More newcomers are Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Hunting and five-year-old son, Wesley. They came to Bloomfield Farms from Cleveland and now live at 6825 W. Dartmoor. Hunting is chief engineer with the Austin Co. Building Contractors. He is a motor boat enthusiast and likes to fish. Mrs. Hunting enjoys golf. Young Wesley is busy going to kindergarten and getting acquainted.

Richard E. Henlatter of 6641 W. Dartmoor became the first of more than 8,000 golfers at Kensington Metropolitan Golf Course to see any hole.

Ellen Kempf Weds Louis Gascoigne

Ellen Klopp Kempf and Louis Buell Gascoigne were united in marriage Saturday at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Peter Robert Klapp of Detroit.

The bride was in marriage by her brother, Morgan C. Klapp of Birmingham. The ceremony was performed in the presence of the immediate families.

FOR HER wedding, Ellen wore a white tulle champagne lace and chiffon dress with a corsage of cymbidium orchids.

Attending the bride and groom were Mr. and Mrs. Arrie M. Klapp of Southfield.

After the wedding trip to Key Biscayne, Fla., they will reside on Abbey Road in Birmingham.

WESTCHESTER—The members of the Westchester Village Book Study Club met at the home of Mrs. Karen Moss of Pebble Lane, Sheila Garza a book report on nine short stories by Salinger.

The spice for the evening was a group discussion on "This," Anatole France.

BLOOMFIELD FARMS—A cheery hello and welcome to Mr.

Merrill-Palmer Alums' Program

Because many alumni have expressed a desire to return to the campus to see "what's new" and hear about current trends in their own areas of educational or professional interest, the Merrill-Palmer Institute has planned a fact-full, two-day program for its former students across the country.

Attending the program from the Birmingham area will include Mrs. Joyce W. Dahn, chairman; Irma Uthoff, Maryellen Gould, Marian Bracknidge, Lois Harwood, Mrs. Sally Ensey, Mrs. Anniel Higgins and Mrs. Katherine G. Wilson.

Opera Leaders Meet

The tremendous growth in interest, knowledge and acceptance of grand opera in Detroit and Michigan prompted the fall meeting of the Education Committee of the Detroit Grand Opera Association, Detroit's Metropolitan Opera Season in Detroit. Chairman George Romney. Also serving on the committee from Birmingham are Mrs. John French and Mrs. Carl W. Sandberg.

Have You Met . . .

The residents of 1363 N. Woodward? Mr. and Mrs. John A. Spier moved from Warren, Ohio, on Sept. 23. He is employed by Detroit Controls Division of American Standard. They have two sons, Carl and C. David.

Robert S. Olson Financially 'Adopts' Two from Athens

Robert S. Olson of E. Glasgow Circle, Birmingham, has financially adopted two children, brother and sister, through Foster Parents' Plan. They are Meletis and Mari Dioloti.

They live in a village near Athens with their mother, two sisters and a brother. They have no income at all and exist on the daily food they receive from some relatives.

They own a primitive two room house that has electricity, but no running water. There is a third room in the yard which is incomplete and has no roof. Their furniture consists of one double bed, one divan, one table, three small benches and a loom.

Attends Musical

Garden Group Meets

Pine Lake Branch of W.N.F.G.A. met last Thursday for dessert at the home of Mrs. Frank Grose. Mrs. Lee Carter of W. W. Lake spoke on "A weed of beauty is a plant whose virtues have not yet been discovered." Mrs. Clarence Warren, president, gave a report on the council meeting at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club.

'Auntie Mame' To Be Presented

Ridgedale Players will present "Auntie Mame" on Nov. 4, 5, 10, 11, 12 and 17, 18 and 19. Currently producing that hilarious comedy of wit and warmth, "Auntie Mame", Ridgedale is meeting with glow and gloom the difficulties encountered in a performance to be given three weekends, a feat which necessitated many summer rehearsals and much sacrifice.

Participating in the play from the Birmingham area are John Hansen, Barbara Dennis, John Warren, Elmer Boch, David Philippi, Bob Smith, Patti Andrus and Jane Dixon.
