

St. Paul's Cathedral Scene of Ceremony

St. Paul's Cathedral Church was the setting Saturday evening for the marriage of Gretchen Guck and Roger Bruno Cudini. The double ring ceremony was performed at 8 o'clock.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred N. Guck of Buckingham Road, Birmingham. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roger C. Cudini of Lahner Road, Birmingham.

MRS. ROGER CUDINI

GIVEN IN marriage by her father, Gretchen wore a bridal gown of white silk organza fashioned with a bell skirt and little Swiss flowers were applied on the bodice and skirt. A pearl tiara held her bouffant veil of French silk illusion. She carried a cascade of lilacs of the valley, orchids and ivy.

Honor attendant was Helen Cudini, sister of the bridegroom.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Robert Marantie of Grosse Pointe and Mrs. Donald McNeal of Ann Arbor.

THEY WERE attired in green chiffon gowns designed with bell-shaped skirts and a French bow at the waistline. A matching shell shape headpiece secured their butterfly veils. Cascade bouquets of gold and bronze fuji mums and croton foliage completed their outfits.

Peter Guck, brother of the bride, served as best man. Seating the guests were Bing Nunnley and Warne Todd.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Guck chose an Italian silk dress designed with an all-over lace top. The bridegroom's mother selected a beige silk dress. Both mothers had cymbidium orchids.

A RECEPTION at the Detroit Boat Club followed the candlelight ceremony. The new Mrs. Cudini chose an emerald green Italian knit suit with royal blue accessories to start her wedding trip to northern Michigan. The couple will make their home in Lansing.

Going to Valparaiso

Two area students are expected to enroll as a part of 1000 new students at Valparaiso University this fall. They are Ronda Crossett, daughter of the Raymond Crossetts of N. Eton Road, and Karen Brode, daughter of the Myre Brodes of Douglas Lane.

MAUREEN MCGINNIS

Maureen McGinnis Engaged to Wed

Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. McGinnis of Bloomfield Hills, announce the engagement of their daughter, Maureen Elizabeth, to John J. Cook, son of Mrs. John J. Cook of Forest Hills, N.Y., and the late Mr. Cook.

Miss McGinnis is an alumna of Marymount Junior College, Arlington, Va. Her fiancé was graduated from Adelphi College, Garden City, L. I., and is with the Underwood-Olivetti Corp. Sales Division. A June wedding is planned.

First Presbyterian Church Scene of Afternoon Rite

At an afternoon ceremony Saturday at the First Presbyterian Church, Sandra Jean Strauss became the bride of Ronald Keith Ries. The 3 o'clock ceremony was performed by Dr. W. Glenn Harris in the presence of 140 guests.

Parents of the newlyweds are

MRS. RONALD RIES

Mr. and Mrs. Max L. Strauss of Cranbrook Road, and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred J. Ries, also of Cranbrook Road.

THE BRIDE appeared in an imported tulle gown featuring a scoop neckline of alençon lace.

three quarter length sleeves and alençon motifs on the full skirt draping into an obi sash.

An alençon lace half-sleeve trimmed with seed pearls secured her French illusion veil. She carried a semi-cascade of phalaenopsis orchids, stephanotis and ivy.

SERVING as honor attendant was Kimberly Sankey and bridesmaids were Kathy Wiggins and Pam Cooper. They were attired in misty turquoise gowns featuring scoop necklines and three quarter length sleeves. They carried colonial bouquets of roses and pink carnations.

William Cartwright stood as best man and escorting the guests were Dale Simons and William Beauchamp.

MOTHER OF the bride wore a beige silk and lace sheath with turquoise accessories. Mrs. Ries selected a cocoa lace sheath over tulle with matching accessories.

Following a reception at Devon Gables, the newlyweds left for a honeymoon at the Picoon Mountains. The bride's traveling costume is a brown and black silk jacket dress with brown accessories.

They will reside in Ann Arbor.

Patricia Ann Timko Weds Lawrence Quinn

Gowned in peau de soie, Patricia Ann Timko became the bride of Lawrence Roura Quinn Saturday afternoon at North Congregational Church. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Theodore Ness in the presence of 300 guests.

The bride is the daughter of Mr.

MRS. LAWRENCE QUINN

and Mrs. Nicholas Timko of Harlan Drive, Bloomfield Hills. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence E. Quinn of Buckingham Road, Birmingham.

THE BRIDE was designed with a petal skirt which ended in a chapel train and a fitted bodice. A crier of orange blossoms and seed pearls held her elbow length veil in place. She carried an orchid surrounded by phalaenopsis and stephanotis.

The bride's sister, Mrs. Nancy Sharp, served as honor attendant. Bridesmaids were Roberta Haynor, Carol Hodgson, Betsy Quinn, Joan Dobbertin and Mary LeTourneau.

THEY WERE dressed identical in blue tulle and nylon. They carried bouquets of lilac fuji mums and deepening shades of delphiniums.

Best man was William Hoek and ushers were Robert Tyner, Jerry First, Robert Hayder, Robert Mize and Robert Kelley.

Ring bearer was Ronald Timko and flower girl was Dale Shubert. Mother of the bride selected a moss green lace over lighter satin and her flowers were orange roses. Mrs. Quinn chose a beige brocade dress with yellow roses.

A DINNER at the Rotunda Inn followed the ceremony.

The newlyweds are honeymooning at New York City and Provincetown, Cape Cod for two weeks. For traveling, the bride wore a white brocade two-piece dress.

Dolores Greig Becomes Bride of John Freeman

Dolores May Greig and John Lee Freeman were united in marriage Saturday afternoon at St. James Episcopal Church. The Rev. W. E. Snoxell performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride of Graefield Court, Birmingham, is the daughter of

MRS. JOHN LEE FREEMAN

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Greig of Grand Rapids, John, who resides in Birmingham, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Freeman of Hendersonville, N. C.

GIVEN IN marriage by her father, Dolores wore a gown of ivory satin peau de soie designed with princess lines, bell-shaped floor length skirt and a flat bow with floor length streamers in the back.

A wreath of ivory crystal orange blossoms secured her shoulder length veil. She carried a cascade bouquet of white mums.

MRS. ROBERT De Graaf of Grand Rapids served as matron of honor. She wore a champagne colored imported silk street length dress with a bell-shaped skirt and carried a cascade bouquet of rust colored mums.

Victor Carbaugh stood as best man and serving as an usher was Martin Behr.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Greig chose a beige silk brocade dress with contrasting accessories. Her flowers were red roses. Mother of the bridegroom selected a blue dress with matching accessories.

Have You Met . . .

The residents of 960 Candlestick Court, Mr. and Mrs. Jack A. Pitt moved from Huntington, L. I., N. Y., on Aug. 8, with their four children, Carol Ann, Johnny, Betsy and Jimmy. Mr. Pitt is a power apparatus supervisor for American Industrial Division. Both Mr. and Mrs. Pitt are graduates of Duke University.

The Birmingham Eccentric Classified pages offer you a fine opportunity to sell your unwanted household goods.

AOPi Alums Plan Meeting

The North Suburban Alumnae Chapter of Alpha Omicron Pi will hold its first monthly meeting 8:15 p.m. Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Melvin Allen, 1638 Washington, Birmingham. Mrs. John Kasz of Pleasant Ridge will assist the hostess.

Guest speaker for the evening will be Mrs. W. Douglas Law, of Allen Park, and former National Second Vice-President of Alpha Omicron Pi. Her subject will be "1961 National Convention of A O Pi in Atlanta".

Included in the program will be a presentation of the special will be the year and a special welcome to new members.

Sigma Gamma's Annual Meeting

Sigma Gamma Association will hold their annual fall meeting this evening at 7:30 at the Detroit Orthopedic Clinic. The agenda will include a talk on speech correction by Miss Peters of the Clinic staff, and there will be a UP film about Clinic services.

NEW JUNIOR initiated from Birmingham - Bloomfield will be Nancy Agil, Virginia Booth, Jane Cooper, Janet Dewey, Julie Ann Francis, Catherine Gillen, Louis Gillette, Gail Graddis, Joan Gray, Gail Hammonds, Ann Hoppin, Roberta Jones.

Laurel Kohl, Sharon Mok, Ann Norris, Ann M. Russell, Betsy Sheppard, Deborah Strerrit and Patricia Theisen.

Have You Met . . .

Mr. and Mrs. Weston A. Meier of 2700 Middlebury Lane, Birmingham? They moved from Marion, Ind., on July 14. Mr. Meier is an auditor for Fisher Body Division of General Motors. They have two sons, David and Ricky. Mrs. Meier is affiliated with Epistol Sigma Alpha Sorority.

Jacobson's

SPECIAL leather palm driving gloves

2.99

Important savings in time for the season ahead! Orlon knit with supple leather palms. White, black or brown. S.M.L. sizes.

Eugenia Stepkowska Pankaton

formerly BALLERINA

of the Metropolitan Opera Company

Resumes Ballet Classes

For Beginners and Advanced Students at the BIRMINGHAM COMMUNITY HOUSE

No Assistants:

Individual attention given due to small classes. French, Russian and Cecchetti method used. Twenty-five years teaching experience.

For appointment please call Midwest 4-9277 from 10:00 to 5:00

CUSTOMCRAFT'S deep dark calf

a beautifully shaped mellow black pump accented at the toe with polished tan calf bands, and sleeked with high silver of a heel.

22.98

Jacobson's

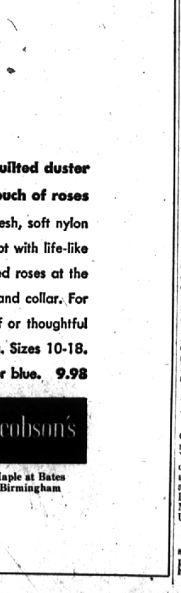

our quilted duster with a touch of roses

Flower-fresh, soft nylon tricot with life-like appliqued roses at the pocket and collar. For yourself or thoughtful gift giving. Sizes 10-18. Pink or blue. 9.98

Jacobson's

Made at Bates Birmingham

2 Hours Free Parking Have Your Ticket Validated When You Make a Purchase at Jacobson's

Autumn Plaids Coordinate

Bardley - master tailor of the timeless fashion classics you enjoy season after season. Wool easy-mannered cardigan suit in a plaid repeated more boldly in the coat...beautiful together or going their own separate ways. Red/green or brown/turquoise. Sizes 8 to 16. Each 69.95

Jacobson's

PILLBOX PRESCRIPTIONS

A. American mink tail with satin crown. Autumn haze, Ranch, or Corulean.

B. Jan Leslie's mousse dome in white or black.

Each. 22.98 plus tax

Jacobson's

2 Hours Free Parking Have Your Ticket Validated When You Make a Purchase at Jacobson's

Autumn Plaids Coordinate

Bardley - master tailor of the timeless fashion classics you enjoy season after season. Wool easy-mannered cardigan suit in a plaid repeated more boldly in the coat...beautiful together or going their own separate ways. Red/green or brown/turquoise. Sizes 8 to 16. Each 69.95

Jacobson's