Study Groups of AAUW To Display Their Works

Study groups of the American Association of University Women which have been meeting together this last year will show their accomplishments at a tea Wednesday in the Birmingham Community House.

Shain class will be in attendance. The book review groups and the child study unit will also be represented, using this opportunity to acquaint new and prospective members of the organization and its program.

Art groups—such as hobby painting, creative writing, fine arts, play reading, and drama and the Children's Theater are planning displays of their work.

Forming the receiving line to greet members and guests will be Mrs. Preston R. Weir, AAUW president, Mrs. Charles Shaw, Mrs. David H. Goodfellow and Mrs. Gerald Joyce. The rest of the board will serve as hostesses. Past presidents will pour at the tea table.

THE TEA IS being planned under the leadership of Mrs. Richard Ringe, second vice-president, who requests that college alumnae from AAUW approved schools, who wish to attend, make a reservation with her.

Serving on her committees are Mrs. James McHugh, Mrs. Richard B. Sneed, Mrs. Howard Key Morgan, Mrs. Frank Nowak, Mrs. Helen E. Gibb, and Mrs. Dorman B. Dickerson Jr.
