Birmingham Bloomfield Hills Society Klars

By JOYCE KLARR
MI 6-1858

Empty saddles in the old corral? Not at the Bloomfield Hills home of Mrs. and Mr. Robert Musay last Saturday. It was Mr. M.'s birthday and as soon as he left the house for an afternoon golf game at Orchard Lake with friends Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Weir (a deceptive ploy) squads of workers moved into his back yard and set up a western barbeque complete with a mirror backed saloon bar (manned by famous bartender, Moe, of the Detroit Golf Club) and canvas covered chuck wagon.

Huge standing rib roasts and a copper wash tub full of fresh corn were roasted over charcoal fires. Gallons of tossed salad were prepared as well as thick slices of oven fresh salt rising bread and for dessert, mounds of fresh peach shortcake.

GUESTS arrived at 6 o'clock and broke into a chorus of "happy birthday" as soon as the surprised birthday boy himself arrived.

Among the 60 guests dining at the kerosene lamp lit tables for ten which had been covered with red checked tablecloths were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Woolfenden, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Ferring, Mr. and Mrs. William Lerchen, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Conway (it was his birthday also), Mr. Maxwell Peed, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Berndt, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Moon, Mr. and Mrs. "Tex" Smith, Mr. and Mrs. J. Judd, Mr. and Mrs. Kinley Brown, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Robert Green, Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Douglas, Mr. and Mrs. George McCormick, Mr. Ed Haley and Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Keitzer.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shaw of Martell drive have returned from a stay at Hidden Valley. Previous to that Mrs. Shaw entertained at a luncheon for her daughter, Mrs. Douglas B. Shaw.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Clark entertained at dinner last week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Lerchen spent the Labor Day holiday with their family at Castle park.

Pee Wee's Pleasure

Bloomfield Hills country clubbers highlighted the past week end with the dancing music of Pee Wee Hunt and among those enjoying the party were Mr. and Mrs. Hensley Dawson, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Cavanaugh, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Simon Knudson, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. George Trumbull and Mr. and Mrs. Norman Fredericks.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Steding III have as their house guests, Mrs. Steding's daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Kinlaw, Jr. of Chapel Hill, N. C. The Kinlaws brought baby son, William, for his christening Sunday at Christ Church, Cranbrook.

No Grapes of Wrath

The wine season was securely launched last Sunday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Finn—scene of their third annual "festival of the grape".

Focal points of the back yard party were the wooden wine dispensing cashiers where guests quaffed their fill at will. A food laden buffet table was set up in the canopy covered back yard and a jazz combo played from a vantage point on the screened terrace.

The latter, the Carl Dryling trio by name, played some of the best music we've heard in a long time and we learned that this party playing is pick-up work for them, by day they work in Detroit, Carl played the piano, Stanley Skolada, bass and Robert Mayrand was on the drums.

AMONG THE GUESTS were the Paul Johns, the Donald Huttons, the Robert Garrisons (have you heard about their fabulous new apartment swailing there on Fifth avenue?) the Steve Booths, the David Brennas, the Fred Bahrs and the George McCallans.
