

Helen Love, Mr. Perugini Wed in N.Y.

Helen L. Love of Grandfield Road, Birmingham, and Angelo Perugini of Olean, N. Y., were united in matrimony Aug. 26 at St. John's Church in Olean, N. Y. The morning ceremony was performed at 9 o'clock.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Stewart Love of Sarasota, Fla. Her husband is the son of Mrs. Domenica Perugini of Olean, N. Y., and the late Vittorio Perugini.

neckline. A brocade sashpiece secured her fingertips. She carried a colonial arrangement of white roses.

Call Rowe of Birmingham was the bride's only attendant. She wore an aqua silk dress featuring a full skirt and beaded bodice. She carried a colonial arrangement of shattered yellow carnations.

Robert Clarke, the bridegroom's brother-in-law, acted as best man.

FOR HER daughter's wedding, Mrs. Love wore a green silk dress with white accessories. The bridegroom's mother chose a gold brocade dress with brown accessories. Both mothers had orchid corsages.

Following the double ring ceremony, a wedding breakfast was held for the immediate families.

The bride chose a blue tulle sheath dress with black accessories for her traveling costume. They are honeymooning in Canada.

HELEN is a former teacher at the school in Birmingham. She will be teaching in Portville, N. Y.

NORTH ADAMS—It's getting to be that time of year again when the school bell rings and eager young hands are wrapped around the piskin as thoughts turn to the future of the North Adams Football League in the North Adams area.

Heading the eastern division for the second year is manager William D. Crim, Jr. of Dorchester Road. Former manager Robert C. Wandell II was moved up to general manager last year. This year Wandell is president of the Birmingham Little Football League.

The coaching staff for the Spartan varsity team, the Wildcats and Indians junior varsity teams are as yet incomplete, but will be announced at a later date.

Tryouts began at Pembroke Park on Tuesday and will be held daily, except Sunday, from 4:30 to 6 p.m. and from 9 a.m. to noon on Saturdays until Sept. 23. Thereafter, practices will be held four days per week. All boys may report during tryouts.

Parents interested in giving a helping hand assisting coaches and cheerleading may contact Manager Crim.

The Charles Morse family of Bolingbroke Drive have added a new member to the family for the next year. He is Christoph Hoffman, an exchange student from Dortmund, Germany. He will accompany the Morse's oldest son, Chuck, to Seaside High School where they are both seniors.

Christoph bid his family, Mr. and Mrs. Gauthier, and his sisters Elizabeth and Beate, goodbye, last Tuesday and joined a team for Understanding Group of exchange students in Amsterdam. Last year he was president of his class, editor of the school paper and was on the track and swimming teams.

Christoph is the first of his family to visit the U.S.

Visiting the Bruce Greenes of Ashover Road for a few days recently were Mr. and Mrs. Peter Adams and children, Patty and Doty, of East Lansing. The Greenes have just returned from vacationing at Daytona Beach, Fla and Myrtle Beach, S.C. with their two children, Lisa and Mark.

The Bruce Hathaways of Oakhill Drive have had their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Cornell and children, Andrea, Lori and Catherine, of Champaign, Ill., visiting last week.

Catherine, born on June 7, is the Hathaways seventh grandchild. The Cornells formerly lived in Clawson and Birmingham.

Houseguests visiting the David Hathaway of Ashover Road from Upper Darby, Pa., were the Al Hutniss and sons, Tripper and Tommy.

The Ray Foxes of Oakhill Drive spent their two-week vacation in the west. They made stops in Green Bay and Milwaukee to visit friends before traveling on to Alexandria, S. D. to visit their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Fox and Mr. and Mrs. Martin Bhumenberger.

The George Mallys and children Gale, Susan and Tim, of Upton Road motored to Tyndall, S.D. for the wedding of their son, Michael to Kay Post, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Post of Tyndall on Aug. 12. The Mallys entertained at a rehearsal dinner prior to the wedding.

The Mally children saw home after the wedding while their parents stayed on for a few days to visit, sight see and to take a cruise on Lake Lewis and Clark. They also stopped at Manitowish, Wis. to visit Mally's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Steven Mally.

On their return home, the Mallys entertained at a Saturday evening reception for 50 friends and relatives, introducing their new daughter-in-law. After the reception, the newlyweds journeyed on to Mackinac Island before returning to the University of Marquette medical school where Mally is a senior. His bride is a medical technician at a hospital in Milwaukee.

The William Wises of Keraway Drive entertained at a rehearsal dinner honoring their son Thomas and his fiancée Janet Parker of Birmingham, Aug. 25 at the Fox andounds.

Wedding party members were the Wise's daughters, Linda, Bonnie and Nancy; maid-of-honor Nancy Tette; best-of-honor Mrs. Robert Garrison; best man Jack Stitch and usher Joel Wise, Owen Cherry, Donald Kristolia and Max Strawn.

Others attending were Miss Parker's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Scott Goodman and Robert Garrison, Mrs. Max Strauss and the Reverend and Mrs. Robert Boley of First Methodist Church of Birmingham.

Wedding party members are all of the Birmingham - Bloomfield area.

Reverend Boley officiated at the candlelight wedding on Aug. 26, at First Methodist Church.

The William Deweys of Anlow Lane will be making two college trips this month.

On Tuesday, Barbara Dewey will enter Western Michigan as a sophomore. The following week Linda will begin her freshman year at Michigan State.
