

Mr. and Mrs. V. Brown To Live in Ann Arbor

Given in marriage by her father, Judith Ann Beyer became the bride of Verne R. Brown Saturday evening at Lutheran Church of the Redeemer. The Rev. Theodore Wugzner officiated at the candlelight ceremony in the presence of 300 guests.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Beyer of 13 Mile Road, Birmingham. Her husband is the son of Mrs. Earl J. Brown of Dover, N. H., and the late Mr. Brown.

white boleroe satin, elaborately applied with alceon lace in a floral motif and styled with classic lines. The gown was designed with traditional long sleeves, layered with buttons and a full court train. A scalloped Queen's crown of satin and jeweled lace secured her tiered veil of silk illusion. She carried a cascade of two white orchids, stapharitis and ivy.

GAIL REILLY served as maid of honor and bridesmaids were Diane Vesler and Sue Orsargos, all of Birmingham. The maid of honor wore a mint green taffeta dress with a full skirt and a Kelly crown panel with bow in back. Her headpiece was a Dior bow in Kelly green and she carried a cascade of dark hibbard shade glamelia.

The attendants were attired in same outfits as the maid of honor only in reverse colors. They carried light hibbard shade glamelia cascades.

Herb Snellings and Dave Foster. The bride's mother chose a laven der sheath of silk organza one tuffeta with matching accessories. The bridegroom's mother was unable to attend the wedding.

Following the double ring ceremony, a dinner was held at the Botaford Inn. Mr. and Mrs. Brown will make their home in Ann Arbor.
