Model Business Team Represents 4-H Club

WALNUT LAKE — Bloomfield's 4-H Club model business team represented Oakland County at the State 4-H Show. Those in attendance were president, Douglas Norland; vice president, Dolores Knipper substituting for Jane Hanzstetter; secretary — Dianne Mott; and treasurer — Wolfgang Lodden substituting for Hugh Nickel.

Others present, Eric Woodward, Lucy Alik, Kris Simonsen, Barbara Hillier, Dickie Ann Hoxie and Linda Jacobson.

Projects were exhibited for child care by Linda Spozita; first year photography, Sally Ringe; fourth year photography, Wolfgang Lodden; third year outdoor foods, Ricki Ann Hoxie; third year Leatherecraft, Linda Wescott and second year electrical, James Drury.

Douglas Norland tried his skill in the state auto drivers' skill contest, James and John Drury exhibited their Hampshire (sheep) and entered showmanship contests.

Two Putnam Road residents have enjoyed short vacation trips. Mrs. John Thomson and her three children, Jeff 12, Wendy Sue, 10, and Tracy Ann, 6, went to Niagara Falls and then on to Chautauque, a religious, educational and cultural center. Mrs. Thomson also visited her cousin, well known opera singer Patricia Bybel.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Speicher and four youngsters Tom, Bob, Mary and Mary Ann, spent a week in northern Michigan at Raber Bay on the St. Mary's River.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Nightingale, Comfort Drive, entertained at a farewell pot-luck dinner for Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bosard. Eighteen friends were on hand to wish the Bosards luck in their new venture in Port Huron where they will be living.

The Bosards have been long-time residents around the lake. Mrs. Bosard was active in community projects and at one time was president of the Walnut Lake Women's Club.

Newlywed W. Edelmanns Honeymooning in Bermuda

The Shrine of the Little Flower was the scene of the Saturday marriage of Dr. Werner J. Edelmann and Carolyn Stower. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Otto J. Edelmann of West Englewood, N. J., and Mr. and Mrs. James W. Stower of Royal Oak, formerly of Lathrup Village.

The nuptial mass was offered by the Rev. Theodore McCarroll. The Pupal Blessing was conferred by the Rev. Chas. E. Coughlin.

THE BRIDE wore a chapel length gown of ivory peau de soie and almon lace re-embroidered with seed pearls. Her bouffant veil fell in soft folds from a circlet of misted green and blue velvet leaves.

The bridegroom's brother, Dr. Robert Edelmann, was best man. Ushers were Lt. James Cavanaugh M.D., Arthur O'Leary and Robert Copeland.

THEY WORE identical gowns of deep silver-crown silk. Marily carried cream Fuji mums with muted blue grapes. The bridesmaids carried lime Fuji mums with sea-green grapes. Their bouffant veils fell in soft folds from a circlet of misted green and blue velvet leaves.

The bridegroom's brother, Dr. Robert Edelmann, was best man. Ushers were Lt. James Cavanaugh M.D., Arthur O'Leary and Robert Copeland.
