Martha Davis Becomes Bride Of Mr. Rossett

Duncan Memorial Chapel in Floydburg, Ky., was the setting Saturday for the marriage of Martha Burleson Davis and Richard Gerald Rossett. The 11 o'clock ceremony was performed by the Rev. Harold W. Criswell.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Hubert Davis of Louisville, Ky. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald A. Rossett of Woodlea Drive, Birmingham.

MRS. JOHN Rossett Davis of Evansville, Ind., bride's sister-in-law, was matron of honor. Junior bridesmaid was Katherine Rossett, bridegroom's sister.

Ralph W. Johnson of Atlanta, Ga., stood as best man and serving as an usher was William Charles Werfield of Paducah, Ky.

The breakfast immediately followed the ceremony in Simpsonville, Ky.

THE COUPLE will live in Boston, where Mr. Rossett is studying at Harvard Graduate School of Business Administration.

Welcome Back' Sign Greets Honor Guests

FRANKLIN WOODS — as the Jerry Kirchberg's and children Mike, Ann, Mark and Timmy approached their old Street, Pickering Road, they were greeted with an enormous sign "Welcome Back Kirchberg's." Former neighbors escorted them, with bells, to the Waller Burton home where the guests. The small Kirchbergs were house guests.

The Burton along with Dr. and Mrs. Mark Dale, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Ford, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Adler, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Higley, Mr. and Mrs. Don Marsh, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Fullam, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Oppman and Mr. and Mrs. Ken Bequette planned a busy schedule.

The balance of Friday was spent at the Burton home having "bull" winks from a skillfully designed survey in red and white with a french motif.

SATURDAY EVENING a progressive dinner began at the Burton home with cocktails and hors d'oeuvres. Dinner was served at the Williams', coffee and dessert at the Oppmans. Dr. and Mrs. Dale demonstrated the chess and piano game a one-man-show with some juggling and pantomime — with wigs yet. The rest of the evening was spent dancing.

The next morning every one showed up at the Esquette home for a farewell breakfast.

Some time during this busy schedule Kirchberg and Burton were able to find time to successfully defend their horse shoe pitching title and retain the cup.

The Kirchbergs now live in California.
