

Newcomers Get Settled In Beverly Hills Abodes

BEVERLY HILLS — Villagers on the move, report! Even your lesser-than-most tracers had a rough go in the pre-school scramble that these four joined.

The E. Lee Embrey, formerly of Birmingham, relocated at 18251 Hillcrest last week in time to start Lee, 9, to his school today and console Bobby, 4. Dad is with Embrey investments.

Dr. and Mrs. G. Burns Newby moved to 32101 Weston Drive two weeks ago with Larry, 7, and Vicki, 5. They're from northwest Detroit (Kansas City before that) where Dr. Newby practices plastic surgery. Mrs. Newby's leisure-time activities? UNTIL auxiliary, of course.

A Ford engineering executive from Chicago has purchased the James Graham's home at 18386 Hillcrest. The Graham's left for Bronzville, N. Y. today to be near his V.P. suite at Madison Avenue's Benton and Bowles.

The Lewis B. Szybzy of Devonshire won't leave for Toledo until Sept. 15—their friends insist on saying just one more good-bye. Two Sundays ago it was at cocktail and dinner at the Leo Linsenmeyers on Beverly with the Otto Carlsons and Harold Voglers of Warwick and the Robert Klines, Peter Condens and Jack Fralicks of Devonshire. This morning it was at a coffee for 15 at Mrs. Kline's.

It wouldn't seem fall without a charity benefit item. Earliest is the Children's Hospital fashion lunch Sept. 7 at the Stabler. Mrs. R. S. Davis Jr. of Weston Drive is this year's ticket chairman. With the help of Mrs. William Garrison of Birmingham, she launched the drive early enough to allow for a month's vacation until Aug. 12 at Point Nipigon.

Included at her table for eight to view the B. Siegel fashions will be Mrs. Rudolph Belian of Warwick, Mrs. William Gilmore of Waltham and Mrs. Larry Muma of Beverly Road.

Mrs. William J. Hall of Whiteoaks Trail is chairman of the luncheon at Forest Lake Country Club Nov. 9 where Margi Frazel fashions will be previewed. The Halls returned last week from a nine-day visit to Philadelphia and New York City where they managed tickets for "Camelot" and "The Unsinkable Molly Brown" and "The Sound of Music."

the safety of a house-trailer they towed along.

Mr. and Mrs. B. John Mitchell of Kinross are back from a month's vacation in Colorado. Stopping in Boulder they visited the Harry Andersons, recently of Sheridan.

The D. E. McKellars of Reedmore hopped the train to California to spend three weeks in the Palmdales area. On their way out they made a stopover to see the Grand Canyon.

The L. G. Whitneys of Georgia spent another week at Burroughs Farms before school opened.

The Ted Shurtleiffs of Sheridan had a second vacation this year, spending several days at the Hillbrook outside Cleveland.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hatch of Beverly are entertaining the Ralph Ritchies, David and Peter, of Cleveland Heights where Ricky and Cissy visited earlier this summer. Two Saturdays ago the Hatches invited ten couples to a potluck supper following a swim at the BHAC honoring their guests.

The George Sudz of Devonshire also entertained BHAC friends that evening.

Miss Betty Schweizer of New York was the guestess of Mrs. Alphonse Staschell of 14 Mile Road that week in August when rain dampened outdoor plans.

Most short trips planned the holiday weekend. Dr. and Mrs. Willard White of Hillcrest visited relatives in Battle Creek. Earlier they had vacationed for two weeks in Montreal, Que. and along the east coast.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl F. Krueger of Amherst enjoyed the long weekend by the lake, staying near Michigan City.

Last Sunday the James O'Callaghans of Marguerite took their turn hosting their monthly pot-luck.
