Couple Repeats Vows In Lutheran Ceremony

Donna Sue Andrus became the bride of Charles William Sharpe Saturday evening at Our Shepherd Lutheran Church. The Rev. Howard Allwardt performed the ceremony in the presence of 200 guests.
 The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Donald Andrus of Manchester Street, Birmingham. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. T. J. Connor of California and Mrs. Charles Sharpe of Huntington Woods.

THE BRIDE wore a gown of white silk organza with an illusion neckline and long sleeves. The princess waist extended into a full floor length skirt with a chapel train. Her crown of pearls and crystals was attached to a fingertip veil of silk illusion. She carried a cascade arrangement of white roses.

Patricia Andrus served as honor attendant for her sister. Bridesmaids were Sally Andrus, Noni White, Cheryl Groulx and Linda McLean. Flower girls were Linda Sharpe and Cindy Phelps.

THE BRIDESMAIDS wore green and styled gowns of frosted peach organza over tulle. Their headdresses were small veils. They carried cascade bouquets of yellow miniature roses. Flower girls wore gowns of pale yellow and carried baskets of white miniature roses.

The best man was Larry Edgerton and guests were seated by Thomas Golan and Ross Kiddle.
 For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Andrus chose a champagne beige silk organza gown with a scoop neckline of silk illusion and matching accessories.
