Birmingham-Bloomfield Hills Society Notes

By JOYCE KLARR
MI 6-1858

Think mink?
 No use this year—not since Oleg Cassini's been in town at any rate. According to his recent dictum, high style fabric coats are very much "in" this year—over since the inauguration as a matter of fact. The only answer to let your beasts lie fallow for a few years until this cloth mania passes, then take them out of the cold storage vaults, fluff them up a bit and you're all set for another go with the skins.
 Designer Cassini drew cheers from his audience last week when he publicly admitted that political—he's a Republican—it's just that he currently makes his living as a designing Democrat. (A large portion of our Birmingham-Bloomfield women applauded that statement.)

Rummage Rally
 While most of our area ladies are plotting their new wardrobes, there are some who have been making plans for last year's designs—at the Christ Church Cranbrook rummage sale.
 Mrs. C. R. Weir was hostess at a meeting of rummage chairmen this week at her home on Cranbrook road. All departments are in operation now and the boutique French room will again be featured with Mrs. Russell Robins at its head.
 An added attraction this year will be a pick up service for those who are unable to bring their donations to the church. Mrs. O. S. Wessels and Mrs. W. F. Graham are in charge of furniture; Mrs. R. W. Brown, books; Mrs. David Burton, linens; Mrs. F. E. Storey, hats; Mrs. L. N. Hershey and Mrs. J. Gerhard, separates; Mrs. F. K. Niegan, dresses and Mrs. P. Eckert, publicity; Mrs. Mildred Bellis and Mrs. John McCormick, china and glassware. The date of the sale is Oct. 26.

Seuss Juice
 St. Dunstan's fall punch party for prospective new members took place at the pavilion last Sunday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Himelbock were in charge of the affair which had as its theme, afternoon in Seussland with Dr. Seuss animals measuring six feet between ears and of the moon and cutout characters from his famous children's books decorating the walls.
 On hand to greet guests were President and Mrs. Fran Loud, board members Mrs. S. Westlan Wright, Mr. John Coppin, Mrs. Maurice Smith, Mrs. Robert Scott, Mrs. David Raymond, Mr. Jack Sanders and Mr. Walt Selover.
 Other guests included Mr. and Mrs. John Warner, Mr. and Mrs. Sid Oldberg, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Portier, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bates, Mrs. Martin Crocker, Mr. and Mrs. Clint Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Garvin Rowden, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Donagan.
 Others included Mr. and Mrs. Jim Maunders, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Strandberg, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Sage, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Averill, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Hare, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. John Guiford, Mr. and Mrs. John Albrecht, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Martin, and Mr. and Mrs. Steve Booth.
 Mrs. F. D. Dodrill of Woodbury drive along with her two daughters Judy to Boston where she entered medical school at Tufts.
 Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Breach will leave shortly on a month's journey to London, Egypt and Thailand, Hong Kong and Hawaii.
 Next week will mark the opening of the fall bridge season at Bloomfield Hills Country Club. Mrs. Walter Bemis is chairman and is assisted by Mrs. L. C. Goad, Mrs. James Goodman, Mrs. G. A. Brown and Mrs. J. A. Frost.
 Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Richards were hosts at a dinner party last week in their home on Goodhue road.

College Daze
 Mrs. Robert G. Harris whizzed in from her summer home at Burt Lake just long enough to ready her twins for their return to college. She is now back at Denison, George is at the University of Michigan, and Mrs. H. is back at the lake enjoying the prettiest season of all—fall, reminiscing over the highlights of her summer namely, the Van Cliburn concert at Interlachen and the Special awards night at Ohio State University. Her father composed the school song and was honored with a D.S.O. from his alma mater.

Speaker to Discuss Civil Defense Topic
 Mrs. J. Warren, welfare coordinator for Oakland County, will address guests Friday at 1 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Robert A. Frye, Bloomfield Hills chairman for Civil Defense. Mrs. Frye resides at 1255 Towbridge Road.
 Mrs. Warren will discuss preparation and show a film, "Small Refugees," depicting evacuation and reception of school children and adults in time of disaster.
 The meeting is open to residents from the Bloomfield Hills area.
