bridesmaids, made for her own wedding last year. She carried white faji mums which echoed the floral design of the silk.

Honor attendant was Roberta Carpenter and bridesmaids were Mrs. Greene, Eleanor Anderson and Mrs. Richard Frederick. They wore topee velvet sheath dresses of the same color taffeta redingotes. Their flowers also of full mums were in the topee and ribbon colors.

RAYMOND Curtis stood as best man and usher included Kirk Ackman, Phillip Griffith and Ronald Sanford.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Ackman chose a peacock blue silk dress and the bridegroom's mother chose a pale pink dress designed with a lace bodice. Both mothers had bridesmaids.

Who said investing is a man's world?
More women
than men own stocks

To invest or not to invest?

The answer to this question is not easy, quick, or foolproof. There's a right way and a wrong way. First, ask yourself what you need for living expenses and emergencies. Do you have a surplus after that? This is money you might consider investing. Secondly, talk to a Watling, Lerchen & Co. representative for facts and advice. Tell him what you want your money to do for you. If your goal is income during the year, you'll probably want to know about stocks with a good record of paying dividends. If you want your money to grow for future use, one thing to discuss is stocks with a reasonable chance to increase in value over the years. For greater safety of income and principal you might find your best investment in bonds. There's also a Monthly Investment Plan which lets you invest with as little as $40 every three months.

Sound interesting? It is. And it can be rewarding. But remember, nothing is for sure. Stocks can go down as well as up, and your money deserves to be treated with care. Turn a deaf ear to tipsters. Talk to Watling, Lerchen & Co.

Studies indicate that more women than men own stock. If you believe that you are one of the many women for whom investing wisely can make good sense, start right—with the help of a Watling, Lerchen & Co. representative.
