Picket Great Lakes Transit

Employees of Intertown Suburban Bus Lines of Dearborn and members of Division No. 1265, Amalgamated Association of Street Electric Railway and Motor Coach Employees of America (AFL-CIO), picketed the Birmingham depot of Great Lakes Transit Corp. at 391 S. Woodward. Despite the 12-picket Friday by some 50 Intertown employees, who have been on strike since expiration of their labor contract No. 1265, Birmingham bus drivers continued their daily runs. Birmingham's 85 drivers are members of Division No. 1803 of the same union. By late afternoon the pickets departed and everything was running smoothly.

Adult Night School Supervisors Get County Budget Registration Open

Registration is open for adult evening classes in the Birmingham School System. Registration, open to anyone 17 years old or older who is not enrolled in the regular school program, will continue until Sept. 22.

Registration hours are 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily in the Board of Education Building at Chester and Martin Streets. Most classes will meet from 8 to 10 p.m.

Groups of 12 or more persons interested in studying a course not listed on the evening schedule may have the class included in the program by contacting the adult education office.

The Frangons will provide music for the dance. Combo members are Homer Mason, John Seator, Bert Shirley, Chuck Sitta and Mike Innes.

Troy Boy, 2, Killed By Trailer Hitch

A two-year-old Troy boy died Thursday after a trailer hitch fell on him. According to Troy police, James G. Corey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd G. Corey, 1063 Boyd, was dead on arrival at Dr. Badi Zocher's office, 115 N. Rochester, Clawson. The boy's father, who had been unloading wood from the trailer, said he heard a scream and found the boy lying unconscious with the tongue of the trailer across his stomach. Corey rushed his son to the doctor's office where he was pronounced dead. Funeral services were held Saturday at the Bell Chapel of the William R. Hamilton Co. in Birmingham with burial at Oakview Cemetery.
