Club Activities Resume In North Adams Vicinity

NORTH ADAMS — With September comes the hum of club activity in the North Adams area. The Osage Garden Club held its first meeting and concert of the season Monday at the Orchard Hill Drive home of a past president, Mrs. Warren Wood.

Their afternoon guest, Miss Rex Anne Beaumont of Onondaga, Mich., has been a very special person to the club. Four years ago the Osage Garden Club chose Miss Beaumont, now a senior at Western Michigan University, as their scholarship girl. She has chosen the library in the field and will graduate next June. The 50 Osage members are one of the few garden clubs in Michigan to offer a full scholarship.

On Tuesday the Osage Garden Club held a "Garden Tour" in the North Adams area of members' gardens. The tour was in benefit for the club's scholarship fund.

The Kern Lake Garden Club opened its fall season with a flower arrangement workshop at the Parkman Drive home of Mrs. Thomas Colley. The members arrived in the morning laden down with flowers from their own gardens. Mrs. J. Gayle, guest speaker, gave a talk on the fundamentals of flower arranging before working with each of the members. After luncheon, the group resumed their workshop class.

The Laurence Prices of Orchard Hill Drive entertained at an "open house" for friends and relatives last Sunday afternoon with their son, Laurence Aden Price, and his fiancée, Miss Barbara Hodgson, daughter of the late Dr. F. H. Hodnets of Springfield, Pa.

The Prices and daughter and son-in-law, the George J. Nichols Jr. of Ann Arbor, will journey to Springfield this week to attend the wedding on Saturday at the Princeton Presbyterian Church. The newlyweds will reside in Philadelphia. After the wedding the Prices and the Nichols will travel on to New York City for three-day tour before going on to visit Williamsburg.

The Lloyd Gardiners of Westchester Road have been entertaining a series of Friday night cocktail parties displaying the wedding gifts of their daughter and son-in-law, the Clyde Howses of Union Lake. The first in the series was for friends and relatives; the second, for the bridal party and younger set. Immediate neighbors were invited to the third party and former neighbors of Detroit and Grosse Pointe completed the fourth in the series. After the last party the Lloyd Gardiners departed for a vacation at their cottage on Lake Huron. Cottage guests visiting there were their son, Don, and friend, Miss Linda Seabaugh, the Clyde Howses and the "Kirk Shuffle" a square dance group from Kirk of Hills.

Sue Mills of Northover Road, a member of the Teenage Panel, was chosen recently as teen model. Sue will begin modeling teen fashions at the J. J. Hudson Co. on Sept. 23 and will continue modeling every second Saturday through the school year. She is the daughter of the Donald Mills, and a senior at Bloomfield Hills High School.

Robert L. McBride, the new Harlan school principal, will be introduced at the schools first PTA meeting next Wednesday, 8 p.m. It will also be a "get-acquainted" open house" for teachers, parents and room mothers in the class rooms after a brief business meeting.

The James Duttons of Ledbury Drive invited neighbors in the Chapel Hill Estates subdivision to an old-fashioned corn roast last Sunday afternoon. Gathering around the backyard pits while the corn roasted were the Richard Hodges, the William Curries, the Barry Jones, the Ben Foley, the T. McClure, the Edward Loewers. Others were the Robert Picucha, the Charles Schwann, the Carl Nelson, the James Fishberg, the Donald Meyers, the Donald Benolks, the Clifford Morgans.

The Frank Macartneys of Burney Drive will be entertaining friends at dinner Friday evening. Among their guests will be W. T. Piper of Lockhaven, Pa. On Saturday Mr. Piper of Piper Aviation will present a Piper J3 Cub to the Henry Ford Museum during the Old Car Festival to be

The Harlan school principal and teachers, their husbands and wives, will be entertained by the Harlan PTA Executive Committee and their husbands and wives at a potluck on Thursday evening at the Robinson Circle Drive home of PTA President William Gordon and Mrs. Gordon.

The get-acquainted party will begin with a punch hour followed by a turkey dinner served on the garden patio overlooking the Rouge River. Planning the event are PTA hospital chairman, Mrs. Glad Barboza and assistants, Mrs. Gordon, Mrs. Albert Mass, Mrs. George Voecker, Mrs. Russell Fisher. The James Adams and daughters, Alex and Stacy, of Kernway Drive returned home from vacation in time for the march back to school. They spent six weeks at Big Sand Lake Club at Iron River in the north country. For the past 70 years members of the Adams clan have been making the same trek to Iron River. Sleeper State Park near Cassville was the vacation destination of campers Mr. and Mrs. Donald Brooken of Ashover Drive for a few days recently.

Patricia Diane Gaynor Gowned in Silk Organza

Gowned in candlelight silk organza, Patricia Diane Gaynor became the bride of Peter James Mosher Saturday morning at St. Robert High Nuptial Mass at St. Belairme in Detroit. Vows were heard at a double ring ceremony. Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. George L. Gaynor of Livonia and Mr. and Mrs. Frank N. Mosher of N. Gledhurst, Birmingham.

MRS. PETER J. MOSHER ensemble with gold accessories. Mrs. Mosher selected a taupe silk suit with white accessories. Both mothers had yellow rose corsages. A breakfast was held at Birmingham Country Club following the ceremony and a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents.

Attendants were nine green organza over taffeta frocks with lace bodices and elbow length sleeves. Hair bows and cascades of yellow roses and miniature ivy completed the picture. Marcia Mosher, sister of the bridegroom, was the flower girl. She wore a matching dress and headpiece as the bridesmaid. She carried a wicker basket of yellow rose buds. Ronald Jackson was best man and senting the guests were James Gaynor, Charles Gaynor and James Traynor.

For traveling the bride wore a dark green wool jersey jacket dress with a gold brocade bodice. They are honeymooning in northern Michigan. The couple will live in Detroit.

MOTHER OF THE BRIDE chose a toast and gold brocade costume.
