Should B'ham Devise Its Own Plan for CD?

To the Editor: Would it not be wise for Birmingham to have a Civil Defense plan of its own, rather than relying on Detroit?

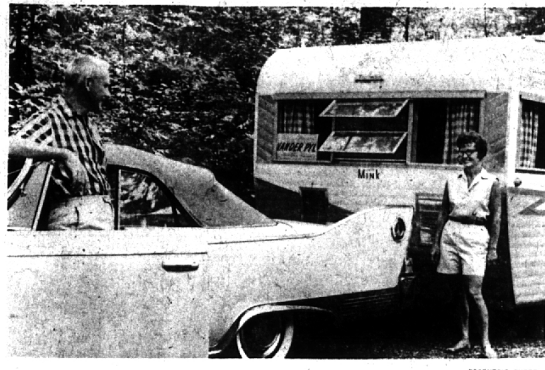

provide food, water and sewage facilities in an emergency. Should not students be sent home immediately with instructions on falling wires, debris, etc.?

Air Patrol Plans Simulated Mission

The Birmingham Squadron of Civil Air Patrol will stage a simulated search and rescue mission Sunday at Bert Airport.

The mission, designed to explain the various functions and objectives of the Civil Air Patrol, will be conducted from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.

THE PROGRAM will be open to the public. Birmingham residents participating as pilots in the mission will be Capt. David J. Burkhardt, 2650 Yorkshire; Lt. Harvey L. Renshaw, 1782 Holland; Capt. George S. Scott, 787 Hazelwood; and Capt. George W. Kantzler, 5786 Bloomfield Glens.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert VanderPyl, 30651 Bristol Lane, Bingham Farms, prepare for one of their monthly trips as members of the Michigan Travel Trailer Club.

What's New? She Asks; They Love 'Trailing'

By ALICE WESSELS BURLINGAME Special Writer for The Birmingham Eccentric You will begin to see spring bulbs after you secure them so they will not dry out due to lack of moisture.

You may be sure that this household will wait until the last of the season to plant bulbs hoping by that time that those pests will have discovered how nice the bulbs taste which are planted in your yard.

CONTRETEMPS And we don't mean maybe! The dust is flying, the paint is splattering, the shelves are coming down, lights are going up and so on ad infinitum. The hitch is that the BULBS are coming, deliveries going out, Christmas materials arriving and nowhere to put them.

YOU WILL enjoy planning your placement of bulbs so that you can have 10 weeks of continuous display of bulbs. Here is the list for you to follow:
