

B'ham Man Protests Weed Cutting Charges

A Birmingham property owner protesting to weed cutting charges of the Forestry and Parks Department failed to influence city commissioners Sept. 11.

Armed Becker, owner of the former E. J. Croyll property at the southwest corner of Maple and Shirley, objected to the city's rate of $6.50 per hour for mowing his property.

Camp Oakland Work-Learn Group Starts

Cabins which summer campers left on Aug. 31 were occupied again Sept. 11 by another group at Camp Oakland in Oxford.

Twelve teen-age youths began a nine-month "work education" program. The youths are school dropouts who will occupy winterized cabins, attend classes and work on camp maintenance projects for half a day.

FOR THE SECOND YEAR...

A two-week session during the 1961 season was devoted to family camping. During that time, 18 mothers and their combined total of 76 children stayed at the camp.

While counselors cared for the children, the mothers went boating, hiking and swimming. The mothers were encouraged to receive special instructions in problems of family living, child psychology and development.

Suburban Sidelihts

Ray Baker, the state representative from Oakland's fourth district, has coined the label "Conservative." This means "let's consider everything carefully."

As soon as others tell this, however, it will connote some special corner of political philosophy.

The Peterson Democrat can no longer exert influence on the general run of the mill Democratic office holder.

I read where a young group of Republican senators are calling themselves "Moderates". They do not want to be considered part of a negative "Conservative" bloc, nor the "Liberal Labor" bloc.

Warren as governor a few years back on the Republican ticket. The vote in Iowa is apparently influenced by the Farmer.

So, next time someone asks you your political philosophy, you might consider sitting and explaining it to him, avoiding the use of a label. It will serve him right for asking.
