

Luncheon Opens Season

Mrs. John Rumsey of Wing Lake Road opened her home Monday for the first fall general meeting of the League of Women Voters. Gathered around the luncheon table are (from left) Mrs. E. R. Sasser, membership chairman; Mrs. John Rex, membership committee; Mrs. James Atkinson, State Item II chairman and Mrs. George Hilfinger, president.

Alpha Gamma Delta Alums Receive Honors

At a candlelight ceremony on Tuesday evening at Wayne State University Alumni house, two local alumnae received honors for service to their fraternity—Mrs. Richard Hammerstein of 3840 Carriage Road and Mrs. Harry Kinney of 16960 Beverly Road.

Mrs. Hammerstein gave many years of her time and energies to the Michigan State chapter before moving to Birmingham a year ago where she immediately showed her continued interest in her fraternity with the newly formed North Suburban Club of Alpha Gamma Delta, and also became an active member of Newcomers.

MRS. KINNEY was active many years with the Detroit club which changed to Alpha Pi chapter when the sorority went on campus at Wayne State in 1962 and has been a pillar of support for the undergraduate girls in their achievement of a new house at University of Michigan.

Participating in the program of the evening was Mrs. Donald Knapp, the club's delegate to International Convention in Colorado last July at which she was elected vice president for Province 5 which includes Michigan and part of Ohio. Others present were Mrs. Carl Biell, president of North Suburban Club, Mrs. Fritz Piesselman, Mrs. Lawrence King, Mrs. B.

Couple Celebrate 50th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur C. Berges, 1880 W. Lincoln, Birmingham, celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary Wednesday at Red Run Golf Club with 80 guests attending. A resident of Birmingham for 30 years, the Berges have a son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Berges of Alameda, Calif., and two granddaughters, Karen and Barbara.

Class Entertained

A "Get-acquainted" party was held Saturday at the home of Fred J. Bush on W. Long Lake Road. The entire class of sixth grade girls were invited along with their teachers and principal of Pine Lake School. Peggy Bush was hostess for the party.

Executive officers elected in June are Mrs. Rudolf R. Kaplan, president; Mrs. Frederick Best, vice president; Mrs. Kenneth Beams, secretary, and Mrs. A. S. Patton, treasurer.

PROGRAMS for the season have been announced by program chairman Mrs. Raymond Porter. In October, Ralph of Fifth Avenue will present hair styles. In November, Newcomers will learn about making Christmas decorations from Mrs. Elise Scheim. The Jills from Bloomfield Hills High School Choral Group will entertain with a Christmas program in December. In January, the Newcomers Little Theater Group will present a play.

New residents are invited to participate in the many activities offered by the Birmingham Community House Newcomers Club. Activities include evening bridge for couples beginning the second Friday in October.

MRS. MICHAEL D. DREW

M. D. Drews Residing in N.Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael D. Drew are residing in New York following their honeymoon in Bermuda. Mrs. Drew is the former Barbara C. Carroll, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Carroll of South Clunbury Road, Birmingham.

The couple exchanged vows Sept. 2 at St. Anthony's Shrine, Duns Scotus College in the presence of 80 guests. The single ring ceremony was performed at noon.

THE BRIDE appeared in an ivory peau de soie gown designed with a square neckline and the bodice was bordered with alencon lace. A veil of French illusion was secured by a pillbox cap of ivory peau de soie. She carried a semi-cascade of stephanids.

Bridal Ann Woods served as honor attendant and bridesmaids were Mary Ann Carroll, Rosemary Hananay and Molly Brennan. They wore leaf green chiffon over taffeta dress and carried cascades of blue mums, green vines and tufts of green wheat. Their headpieces were semi-pillboxes with short veils.

EDWARD O'BRIEN stood as best man and ushers were William Amana Jr., John Carr and James Farrell. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Drew of New York City.
