

I saw them (and many scores more like them) walking along, hand in hand. They were about 14 or 15 years young. He looked happy and she did not appear sad. They had entered that adolescent era when the best buds of romance were beginning to bloom... when his thoughts that "I have found a girl who really likes (loves) me" and she felt he really sings with a possessiveness that even is woman!

B'ham Musicals's New Members' Tea

Birmingham Musicals will honor new and prospective members at a tea next Monday afternoon at the Community House. Mrs. Joseph R. Beckley is chairman in charge of all arrangements.

The guests will be greeted at 1:30 p.m. in the auditorium by the new President of the Musicals, Mrs. John G. Wright, Jr.

MRS. JOHN R. PHELPS, orientation chairman, will then speak briefly to the group about various facets of membership. This will be followed by the initial presentation of an original One Act Comedy entitled "The Welcome Caller."

The comedy, which includes music, was written by Mrs. Phillip R. Flanders, one of Birmingham Musicals's own members. Taking part in the play will be Mrs. Clarie F. Pardee, Jr. and Mrs. Arthur R. Welton.

Also in the play is a mysterious character called "Mable" who never gets on stage. Mrs. William C. Simpson is in charge of stage and properties. Mrs. Flanders will serve as director.

MRS. EDWARD PHELPS, harpist guest artist from Detroit, will close the program, performing "Shone Erimong" by Adam Hahn, "Fraischour by Salzedo and the Chopin Prelude in C-Minor."

Hostesses assisting Mrs. Beckley on the tea committee include Mrs. Ruth Bartlett, membership chairman, and Mrs. Emerson Brown, Mrs. Andre D'Hyvree, Mrs. John Danek, Mrs. Hans W. Cronan, Mrs. Walter Mackenzie, Mrs. Henry C. McQueen and Mrs. Lawrence B. Middleton.

Miss McIntosh Weds J. E. Millar

After a wedding trip through northern Michigan, Mr. and Mrs. James Ellis Millar are residing at their home in Mount Pleasant. The bride is the former Marcia Gale McIntosh. They were united in marriage Sept. 1 in the First Presbyterian Church with Dr. W. Glen Harris and the Rev. Ralph Strible officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Volley A. McIntosh of Franklin. Her husband is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Richard Harvey Millar of Mt. Clemens.

THE BRIDE was gowned in ivory peau de soie designed with an oval neckline, long tapering sleeves and the skirt was complemented by soft pleats falling to a chapel sweep, completely unadorned except for a full lipped bow at the back of the bodice.

A bouffant satin-bound ivory silk illusion veil was fastened to a row of beehive of ivory pins. Her ivory fugi mums and ivy were fastened to a small white Bible.

SUE BAUER served as maid of honor and bridesmaid was Denise Gorenk. They were gowned alike in antique gold peau de soie and they were veiled bows on a narrow velvet band. Cascades of russet and gold fugi mums with ivy completed their outfit.

William Miller stood as best man and ushers were William Rucker, Richard Miller and Donn McIntosh. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. McIntosh chose a coppergio jacket with overalls and matching accessories. Mother of the bride groom selected a light brown chiffon dress with matching accessories. Both mothers had cymbidium orchids.

Terra Cotta Group Opens Fall Season

Terra Cotta Sculptors opened the fall season with their first meeting at the home of Mrs. Howard Knight, 790 W. Long Lake Road. New officers are Mrs. D. P. Caris, president; Mrs. Erwin Mork, vice president; Mrs. Joseph Oron, treasurer; Mrs. N. D. Wynkoop, recording secretary and Mrs. R. H. Brown, corresponding secretary.

The Oct. 13 meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Hugh Backus, 1230 Latham Road.

Patricia Kelley Attends Wellesley

Patricia Kelley, 640 Henley Drive, Birmingham, has been chosen to be a resident of the German Corridor at Wellesley College for the 1961-62 academic year which will begin today.

Miss Kelley, who will be a sophomore at Wellesley this year, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bethel B. Kelley and is a graduate of the Kingswood School Cranbrook.

ARTHUR MURRAY of Birmingham ENJOY THE BENEFITS OF FINE SOCIAL DANCING

FAIR ENROLLMENT NOW IN PROGRESS
Stop in for details and a complimentary lesson
AIR CONDITIONED
ARTHUR MURRAY STUDIO
A Sub-franchised Studio, J. H. McNeil - Licensee
305 N. Woodward MI 6-0500

Women's Association Begins Fall Season

WESTCHESTER — The hustle and bustle in Westchester Village is a good indication that "fall is here!" The Westchester Women's Association is comprised of many groups doing many types of things and this is the time of year when they welcome newcomers to meetings. Anyone interested can contact Association President Mrs. George Fulkerson for more information.

Some of the groups have already started activities. The art group had its first meeting at the home of Mrs. Joseph McNetney. A new choral group began its first season at the home of Mrs. Robert Johnson. The physical fitness group met at the home of Mrs. Robert Hedder. The social service group, chaired by Mrs. Henry Gluckstad, gathered at the home of Mrs. James Walker.

Beginners in bridge will receive their first instructions sometime in October at the home of Mrs. Sidney Factor, 2855 Middlebury Road. Anyone interested in joining may call Mrs. Factor.

The dance club has two new chairs, Gordon Lovland and Frank Starr. They have engaged the Fox and Hounds hall again for the 1961-62 season and are already making plans for the first dance sometime in November. Contact Lovland or Starr if interested.

BLOOMFIELD FARMS — Not long ago, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Souder of Clunbury Drive with their first children, David, 4 and Ann, 8 months, returned from a two-week vacation at Casville on Saginaw Bay.

They shared a cottage with Mr. and Mrs. Bud Gross from Birmingham. Mrs. Case is an avid painter and used landscape there as her subject matter.

WESTCHESTER — The Westchester WNFCA will have two of its own members as speakers for the meeting at 8 p.m. Monday at the home of Mrs. Frank Baylis, 2569 Summerville Lane.

Mrs. Boris Osojnak and Mrs. Earl Herz, students of the Michigan division of WNFCA flower show and apprentice judges, will demonstrate flower arranging on the basic equipment to the finished product — which will be done with home grown flowers.

Mrs. D. C. Beneke, Mrs. R. W. Jacob and Mrs. John Bryant will be the hostesses for the afternoon.

MAPLEBROOK — The Maplebrook WNFCA will meet at 12:30 p.m. Wednesday at the home of Mrs. F. W. Whitson, 276 S. Wilhamsbury. Co-hosting the afternoon will be Mrs. G. H. Webb and Mrs. William Boersma.

Mrs. Stewart Schultz has been invited to talk to the members. Mrs. Schultz is well known in the Birmingham area for her talks on "Herbs." Mrs. Schultz often demonstrates some of the uses for her herbs which she grows herself.

WESTCHESTER — Boy Scout Troop 1015, sponsored by Valley Woods PTA held its Summer Court of Honor recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Mueller on Cranbrook Road. Troop officers in attendance were Scout Master George Wilson and Ken Kittle, assistant scout master and institutional representative of Valley Woods PTA, Fred Westbury, Assistant Scout Master and secretary, Gene Mueller and committee chairman Dale Walker were also there.

Scouts who attended D-BAR-A Camp were presented with their camping award badges. Those who received awards were Rodney Baran, Zig Baran, Richard West-

Firsts For Fall!

NEW SUITS FOR FALL

Choose from our large selection of new patterns and colors in all the finest fabrics. From $75

Matthew's
Alterations for Ladies and Gentlemen
FORMAL RENTALS
Open 7:30 a.m. 'til 8:30
FREE PARKING IN REAR

MI 4-1777
288 E. Maple
Brigg's Bldg.

Taylor, Wyatt Repeat Vows At First Methodist Church

The First Methodist Church of Birmingham was the scene Sept. 9 for the marriage of Grace Elaine Wyatt and Thomas Ward Taylor. Dr. Dunkel performed the ceremony at 4 o'clock.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert L. Wyatt of Birmingham and her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde L. Taylor of Grand Rapids.

GIVEN IN marriage by her father, the bride appeared in a four length gown of peau de soie designed with a chapel train and reembodying alenon lace surrounding a scoop neckline. Her veil of silk illusion was attached to a Juliet cap framed with alenon lace and seed pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of three white orchids encircled by staphenotis and ivy.

Bonnie Graham was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Susan Leahy and Lu Carr. Attendants were attired alike in light yellow peau de soie and carried bouquets of yellow and white mums.

JAN WYATT, the bride's niece, was flower girl.

Those who received awards in merit badges were Mike Haibeck, Doug Mueller, Dave Wacker and Ken Kittle, Jr. Scouts promoted to second class were Mike Haibeck, Ken Kittle, Jr., Zig Baran and Dave Walker. Promoted to first class was Richard Westbury. Warrants were awarded to Senior Patrol Leader Richard Balgorth and assistant Patrol Leader Richard Westbury. Doug Mueller and Zig Baran were promoted to patrol leaders.

Those who received awards in merit badges were Mike Haibeck, Doug Mueller, Zig Baran and Richard Westbury for efforts in canoeing. Swimming honors were taken by Mike Haibeck.

Honor Scout Awards were given to second runner-up Richard Westbury who received a bronze medal and an engraved plaque. The first runner-up was Zig Baran who received a silver medal and a plaque. Honor Scout of 1961 is Doug Mueller who received a gold medal, plaque and a .22 rifle.

The first meeting of the Book Study Club will be held Sept. 21, at 8 p.m., at the home of Lucille Lightstone, 116 Westbourne. Maureen Terrier will lead the discussion on the first book, Henry James' "Washington Square."

Sandy Newliner, chairman of the club, has several copies she is willing to lend so that all members will have read the book before the meeting. Also at this meeting, Pat Franking will review the Pulitzer Prize-winning novel, "To Kill a Mockingbird."

Since one of the ambitions of the club is to build and enlarge the library, even to the extent of serving the entire village, Lorraine Tobias, librarian, reminds members that anyone who has books to lend or give should take them to this management meetings and put them to work.

SO, CRANBROOK — Houseguests at the home of J. Riesz Cranbrook Road home were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Riese from White Plains, N. Y. Mr. and Mrs. F. Townsend and children from Minneapolis, Minn.; Mrs. Henry Riese and Mr. and Mrs. E. Riese from Middletown, Ohio. Those out of town guests attended the Sept. 2 afternoon wedding of Sandra Joan Strousser and Ronald K. Riesz.

THE BRIDES attendants were Caroline Post, Judy Jacobs and Gail Mally. Tim Mally was best man and ushers were Ernest Doods, Michael Crestoforo, Frank Post and Charles Post.

Mrs. Mally is a graduate of Maryhurst College, where she received her BS degree and her husband, a graduate of the University of Detroit, is now a senior in Medical School at Marquette University.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Wiggins of Yarmouth Road, Bloomfield Village, announce the engagement of their daughter, Katherine Jane, to Dale Lawrence Simon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Simons of Wooddale Road, Bloomfield Village. Katherine is attending Stephens College in Columbia, Mo., and Dale is attending Wabash College in Crawfordsville, Ind.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Wiggins of Yarmouth Road, Bloomfield Village, announce the engagement of their daughter, Katherine Jane, to Dale Lawrence Simon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Simons of Wooddale Road, Bloomfield Village. Katherine is attending Stephens College in Columbia, Mo., and Dale is attending Wabash College in Crawfordsville, Ind.

THE COILS: of highly tempered steel specially designed, offset, helically ried, interlocking — thus making a quieter unit. Special SEAT EDGE construction prevents sides sagging.

THE INSULO SPRING CUSHIONS: which is a famous exclusive Stearns & Foster quality feature eliminates coil fall, makes for lasting shapeliness and extra comfort throughout the many years of use.

THE BORDERS: pre-built with specially developed inner roll construction that wraps thick cotton fluff over and around all edges top and bottom to prevent slipping.

BUDGET TERMS, OF COURSE

Free Parking Front and Side of Store

Stewart-Glenn

Interior Decorating Counsel At No Extra Cost

Just South of Orchard Lake Road

Working in Denver

Judith M. Shafer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Shafer of Birmingham, is presently affiliated at National Jewish Hospital in Denver, Colo. Her next affiliation will be at Highlandview Hospital in Cleveland. She will graduate from Western Michigan University next year, receiving a bachelor of science degree in occupational therapy.

Entering College

John L. Kiefer, son of Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Kiefer of Kennebec Court, Bloomfield Hills, will enter Kalamazoo College this fall. He is a graduate of Cranbrook High School.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

Bates and Willets Birmingham, Mich.
Dedication Sunday—Sept. 24, 1961
11:30 a.m.—Morning Worship. Message by Dr. Kenneth L. Cober, Dir. of the Div. of Christian Education of the American Baptist Convention.
4:00 p.m.—Dedication of the new Christian Education Unit. General Motors Church.

Panel of Community Leaders:
Mrs. Florence Willett, Mayor, City of Birmingham
Mr. Daniel A. Nesbit, Birmingham Public Schools
Mr. Owen Manchester, Director, Birmingham Y.M.C.A.
Mr. S. Ward Durand, Executive Dir., Birmingham Community House
Mr. Charles Mortenson, Mgr., Birmingham Chamber of Commerce
"What is our Responsibility to Children and Youth?"
5:30 p.m.—Open House
7:30 p.m.—Youth Dedication
Speaker: Rev. David Evans, Dir. of Youth Work of the American Baptist Convention.

Fine Furnishings Since 1917

Stewart-Glenn

BEDDING CLEARANCE

Famous STEARNS & FOSTER Mattresses and Box-Springs

- "Posture Flex Firm"
- "Hotel Built Firm"
- "Quilt Flex" and Others

Your Choice

$3900 each

Twin or Full Size
Mattress or Box Spring

Odd's and ends left from carload purchases—we pass the savings on to our customers! Select from famous STEARNS & FOSTER built mattresses and box springs made to rigid specifications. All styles have famous Insulo cushions, patented locked edge, pre-built borders and triple-tempered units. Only a few of a kind.

Stewart-Glenn

Interior Decorating Counsel At No Extra Cost

Just South of Orchard Lake Road