Weather Frowns So Tea Moves Indoors

WALNUT LAKE — The ingenious way women can make a "quick-switch" and still have things "smooth as silk" was demonstrated on Sept. 14 when the Walnut Lake Women's Club held their annual tea.

Originally planned to take place in the garden of club president, Mrs. Arthur Dowd on Putnam Drive, bad weather made it necessary to transfer the party to the home of vice president Mrs. Julian Ofenstein, immediately next door.

Mrs. J. P. Carrite spoke on the "Gifts Of The Bible."

Mrs. W. L. McCane was chairman for the tea, assisted by Mrs. Julian Ofenstein, Mrs. William Cray, Mrs. D. M. Morrison, Mrs. D. W. Butler, Mrs. C. L. Green, Mrs. Joel Warren, Mrs. Kirk Mills, Mrs. C. E. Morrow, Mrs. H. G. Jacobson and Mrs. John Thomson.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Eder of Putnam Drive went to N. Manchester in Indiana very recently to visit Mrs. Eder's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henderson Brown.

While there, they were part of the Brown family reunion which included some 70 people. Mrs. Eder's comment on the guest list

Returns to Elmira

Virginia Sue Harrison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Crockett A. Harrison of Waddington Road, Birmingham, returned to Elmira College to assist with New Students Week and to enter her junior year of study. Classes began Sept. 19.

was "Oh! everyone who could walk or crawl was there and we wouldn't miss it."

The new season began for the Walnut Lake branch WNFPGA with a tea at the home of club president, Mrs. Robert Carter, on W. Shore Drive at Orchard Lake.

The tea committee was chaired by Mrs. Kenneth Bielby, assisted by Mrs. Richard Bergman, Mrs. William Schroeder, and Mrs. A. A. Wilbur.

Holiday in Spain Is Filled with Excitement

NORTH ADAMS — Spain in September was a dream come true for the Jerry Kabels of Winchcombe Drive as they packed for their fabulous two-week trip. They attended the gala festivities in Salamanca and made the round of bull fights in Barcelona and Madrid.

The last week was spent in Paris on walking sight-seeing tours. They were intrigued with the sidewalk cafes, the shops and the left Bank as well as the Eiffel Tower and other points of interest.

Mrs. James Shannon of Parkman Drive and her friends, Mrs. J. D. Kerr of Clarkburg, W. Va., and Miss Margaret Templeton, R.N. of Treadwell, Ontonagon, were in Cape Cod for a week of sightseeing at Provincetown. Hyannis Port and the Kennedy stockade was another stop before going on to Boston.

They enjoyed watching the television film of "Old Ironsides" in the harbor at Boston. Antiquing was also on their list before journeying on to Montreal, the St. Lawrence Seaway and then a stop back in Caledonia for Mrs. Shannon's mother, Mrs. George McClure who was waiting to return to Bloomfield for a visit.
