

Birmingham-Bloomfield Hills Society Notes

By JOYCE KLARR
MI 3-1343

Understand that President Woodrow Wilson was 58 years of age when he was elected to the White House. It is a little-known fact that if you make it in one city, you can count on making it in another. (Don't suppose that would have been much help to the Jews based in the districts, however they DID move about a lot.)

Well, let's hold up our chin straps, straighten our Spencers and face the world bravely albeit with moist eyes (not too moist—eyes are still "in" this year and we don't want our mascara to run) even if we didn't make the line AGAIN this year. We still have our books, plants and small animal friends.

Speaking of books, 20,000 are being read by those going off to the AAUW who are finishing last min ute jobs in preparation for their annual sale which will begin on Sept. 25 with Mrs. Kenneth Kester and her committee handling the crowds expected at Demery's.

The Women's Society of the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer are also polishing off final details for the opening of their cinema guild presentations Oct. 4 at the Bloomfield theater. "Teachers Pet" is the first offering and Mrs. J. H. Dize is chairman.

Happy B. Day

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Howe are becoming famous for their birthday parties. Last Friday they honored their close friends whose birthdays fall in August, September and October. Setting for the current party was their home on Lone Pine Court.

Stopper

Mr. and Mrs. William E. Tracey who spend their summers in our town are staying at the Bloomfield Hills Country Club. They will journey to New York before returning to their winter home in Naples, Fla.

Over There

Mrs. Gunnar Källstrom has returned from Europe. Highlights of her trip included a visit with her family in Sweden and a stay in Spoleto, Italy, where she renewed her friendship with young New York conductor Thomas Schippers.

Mrs. Norman Lyle and Mrs. C. J. Shain are touring the Irish countryside and have fallen in love with the said soil.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Sappington, who as most of us know, spend seven months of the year in Europe, are currently in Gaudenzi, Austria. They were dining company recently of the Granddaughter of Queen Victoria, the Duchess of Cambridge, who is the only daughter of Kaiser Wilhelm.

Indian Summer

Mr. and Mrs. Muff W. Lind will spend all of September and October at their summer home on Lake Leelanau.

The J. F. Pedders traveled to Winneto, Ill., for the christening of their granddaughter, Mary Sue Fox, who is the daughter of the Pedder's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. William Fox.

Dr. and Mrs. Luther R. Leader gave a luncheon last Sunday in their Bloomfield Hills home for board members of the National Cathedral association. In town for the Episcopal Convention in their home guest, the Rt. Rev. Bishop Angus Dun. Guests at the party included the Rt. Rev. Bishop William Creighton and Mrs. Creston, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick C. Ford, Mr. and Mrs. Max Tunncliffe, Mr. and Mrs. Art M. BeGole, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Proctor, Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Marsh and Mrs. Maurice Gersbach.

Art Institute Plans 5 Fall Workshops

Five workshops for young people in the Birmingham area are once again being offered by the Detroit Institute of Arts.

The classes in paint, clay, paper and other materials, give young people an appreciation of the creative tools of the artist.

The workshops begin Oct. 7 and continue for five weeks. Grades 1 and 2 will have classes from 10 to 11:30 a.m.; grades 3 and 4 will have classes beginning the same day from 1 to 2:30 p.m. Both of these classes will continue through Nov. 4.

ON NOV. 18, from 10 a.m. to 12 noon, classes for grades 5 and 6 will be held. On the same day, classes begin for grades 7 and 8 from 1 to 2 p.m. These classes will continue until Dec. 16.

Grades 9 through 12 will begin classes on Jan. 6 from 10 a.m. to 12 noon. Classes will end Feb. 3. Classes will be held in local schools. Registrations are being accepted for the series of five workshops.

High Twelve Holds First Fall Meeting

Birmingham High Twelve Club held its first fall meeting last week. Nearly 100 persons attended the meeting presided over by Dean Peter, club president.

Following the invocation by the Rev. Arnold Runke, Bob Peck and A. V. Copeland entertained the group with a few musical presentations.

Bill Arnold's recent selection as state treasurer was celebrated with the passing out of cigars. Arnold commented on the fine job the state organization is doing with the injection of new ideas by the current administration.

ARLUND ANNOUNCED a workshop meeting to be held at the Capital Motor Inn in Lansing.

What's New in Hats

Fluffy, lightweight and fur-like marabou feather hats have been one of the top early fall items in many stores cross-country. White has been the favorite color, followed closely by black, beige, turquoise, emerald, hot pink and magenta.

Small Business Management Class Opened at MSUO

One of the new courses introduced by Michigan State University at Okland this fall has been filled to capacity. The course is being offered by the second section of the Seminar in Small Business Management which will be led by experts in small business drawn from universities and firms in the area will be held on Tuesdays, beginning Oct. 23, from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m.

The course which is directed to owners and managers of small business will feature discussions on common problems. It will cover specialized tasks of small business operation such as planning, finan-

Economics Course At Community House

A course in Freedom Economics will open at the Birmingham Community House Oct. 6.

Designed to orientate students on current events, the course will deal with public affairs such as taxes, unemployment, recessions, free enterprise and planned economy.

Classes will be held one evening a week at 7:30 p.m. for 10 weeks. They are conducted in cooperation with the Henry George School in Detroit.
