

Birmingham Students Arrive on Campus

Two local residents recently participated in the University of Detroit Freshman Orientation Week at group leaders. Raymond Lyons, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Lyons of N. Glenhurst, is a junior majoring in business advertising and economics. He is a member of the Young Republicans, Society for the Advancement of Management and Sigma Phi Epsilon, national social fraternity.

Thomas Connelly, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Connelly of Scenic Drive, Franklin, is a junior majoring in philosophy. A 1958 graduate of Bellarmine Prep in San Jose, Calif., Connelly is a member of Delta Sigma Phi, international social fraternity.

Summer Graduates
Over 1000 students, the largest summer class in several years, were graduated from Michigan State University at the end of the 1957 summer term. Four students from Birmingham were David A. Balm, 1749 Fenimore, B.A., purchasing administration; John A. Clark, 1872 Banbury, B.S., mechanical engineering; Beverly Carey, 1386 Kirkway Drive, B.A., elementary education; and Eleanor Duckworth, 7458 Sweetbair, M.A., graduate services.

Freshmen Introduced
Nancy Ann Bogan and Susan Mary Canever of Birmingham, were introduced to the faculty of Loyola Heights College, Denver, Colo., at the Faculty Convocation last week. Both girls are enrolled as freshmen at the liberal arts college.

Nancy Ann is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Bogan of Suffolk Road, and Susan Mary is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Canever of Harmon Street.

In Honor Program
Charles H. Harper IV, son of the Charles H. Harpers III, 952 Wimbleson, Birmingham, was among the 88 freshman of Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, Troy, N. Y., who has been chosen for study in special sections in the honors program.

This is recognition of promise of exceptional development. It affords special opportunities to students showing an unusual degree of intellectual capacity and curiosity.

Pledge List
Pledging Kappa Kappa Gamma at the University of Mississippi recently was Margaret Ann Bird of Birmingham.

Social Fraternities at The State University of Iowa pledged 274 men at the close of the fall "rushings" season. Birmingham students included Bill Merrill and Mike Kinsinger, Delta Chi, and Mike McCormick, Sigma Phi Epsilon.

Douglas Donald Dedo of Lenox Road, Birmingham, pledged Sigma Alpha Epsilon at the University of Kansas.

Enters Shattuck
Students enrolled at Shattuck School, Fairbault, Minn., at the beginning of its 104th year come from 31 states, two Canadian provinces, Mexico, The Philippines, India, Hong Kong, Saudi Arabia, Chile, Germany and France. Entering student from this area is William Martin III, son of Mr. and Mrs. William L. Martin II, of Brafferton Road, Bloomfield Hills.

Pledges at DePauw
Three Birmingham students have been pledged by fraternities at DePauw University. The new pledges are Delmer Gowins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Delmer Gowins, 1106 Wakefield Drive, Phi Gamma Delta. Robert Holland, son of the John Hollands of Botterнат Hill, Phi Gamma Delta and Walter Knight, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Knight of West Lake Road, Delta Tau Delta. Also Thomas Maron of Orchard Lake Place, Delta Upsilon.

Counselors
Jeanne Wendell Phillips, daughter of the Frank R. Phillips of Pleasant Street, and Marion Givman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William K. Givman of Beverly Road, Birmingham, are sophomore counselors to the incoming freshman class this fall at Western College for Women.

The counselors were selected from nominations submitted by the freshman class, student officers and college officials.

Campus-aud
Susan Bearden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Judge W. Bearden of Tenthaven Road, Birmingham, has been accepted as a member of the freshman class at Newton College of the Sacred Heart, Newton, Mass.

Susan graduated from Bloomfield Hills High School.

Susan Wotela, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Felix Wotela entered Kalamazoo College this fall. She took part in the New Student Days orientation program which began last Saturday. She is a graduate of Bloomfield Hills High School.

A June graduate of Academy of the Sacred Heart, Ann Marie Schriener, daughter of the Richard A. Schrieners of Glenkangy Road, Birmingham, is among the freshmen class at Trinity College, which is a liberal arts college for women.

Cord Welcome Tea
Gail Gaida, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gaida of Northlawn Drive, was decorations chairman of the 1957 University of Detroit Cord Welcome Tea Sunday.

A senior business education major in the Commerce and Finance College, Gail is the president of the U of D chapter of Pi Omega Pi, secretary of Delta Zeta and is a member of the Michigan Business Education Association.

The tea, an annual affair sponsored by the Women Students League, gave new cords an opportunity to meet women faculty members and coed campus leaders.

U of M Grad
The University of Michigan has awarded 1206 degrees to Summer Session graduates. Bloomfield graduates include John C. Marsh, 81 Cranbrook, B.A.; Molly A. Martin of Brufferton Road, B.A. in education; and Robert Morse, 8170 Deepwood, B.S. in engineering.

From Southfield are Frances Bresler, 28705 Stuart, M.A.; and Sanford Schane, 18387 New Hampshire, M.A.

Graduate Work
Gary B. Stone, son of Mr. and Mrs. Worthing H. Stone of Snow-shoe Circle, Birmingham, is doing graduate work in American history at the University of Washington.

Gary graduated in June from Knox College. He was affiliated with Alpha Delta Epsilon.

The busiest waterway in the world is Detroit river, which carries more tonnage annually than do the Rhine, Thames, Seine and Volga rivers combined.

Plan Maryglade Benefit

James M. Roche, 425 Dunston Road, Bloomfield Hills (left) is chairman of the $100-a-plate dinner Oct. 10 at Cobo Hall at which annual Knights of Charity Awards will be presented by trustees of Maryglade College. Assisting him are Benjamin Levinson of Detroit and John R. Wilt of Grosse Pointe (right). A special feature of the dinner will be the award presentation to Stephen Bartush, founder of Shedd-Bartush Foods; Al Borman, chairman of the board, Food Fair Markets; Benson Ford, vice president, Ford Motor Company. Proceeds of the dinner will go to scholarships and development fund of the college which was founded last year in Memphis, Mich., under direction of the Pontifical Institute for Mission Extension.

Kiwanis Sponsors Recognition Night

Birmingham Kiwanis Club will observe National Public Works Week Oct. 1-7 with recognition of local officials and their accomplishments at a dinner meeting Oct. 5. Co-sponsored by the Kiwanis Club and the American Public Works Association, the dinner meeting will be held at the Birmingham Community House.

Guest speaker Thomas C. Brian, 8696 Kipling, Birmingham, superintendent of the Birmingham Department of Public Works, will present a film, "Collectors Items" and discuss the progress and growth of his department.

THE MEETING will be open to the public.

In proclaiming Oct. 1-7 as Public Works Week, Mayor Florence H. Wilette called upon "all citizens and civic organizations to acquaint themselves with the problems involved in providing the public works facilities and services desired by the people; and recognize the need for professional personnel in this field and the important role they play in our democratic system of government."
