UF Chairmen Plan Campaign Over Coffee

BEVERLY HILLS — Charities begin at home this week, according to Mrs. John Canavan of darguerite, United Fund division chairman for most of Beverly Hills. She mapped the coming campaign over coffee with three area chairmen last week who will then be hostesses to the district chairmen. All 14 district chairmen will pour for their solicitors before the drive begins Oct. 16.

The 14 district chairmen are headed by Mrs. James B. Golden with mesdames Theodore Kobelan, Leon Blooming, Howard Kay, E. Gross, Jr. and M. E. Hannum in charge of the five districts.

Mrs. Thelma Raleigh has the Pierce-Southfield area with mesdames John Musto, T. E. Nagle, Ernest Hengsbach and Ernest Carlson heading up the districts. The Southfield-Lahar area campaigning will be conducted by mesdames V. J. Bonmarito, H. S. Harding, Willard White, Clarence McCree and James B. Shank, under the direction of Mrs. T. E. Dougherty.

It's really "new!" With the ingathering just days away, the West Valley Sewing Club pushed up their regular meeting day to Tuesday. Mrs. Alphonse Staebel of 14 Mile will be hostess to the needlewomen.

Critics say Kent MacDonald of Birwood distinguished himself directing the 600-voice choir massed from all Michigan for the opening of the Triennial convention of the Protestant Episcopal church here. The St. James organist and choir director says he isn't sure—Cobo Hall is cavernous that even the anthem he arranged might have changed before it carried to the back row.

Southern kin visiting the Bernard Hengsbachs of Marguerite last weekend were Miss Ethel Blackman and Mr. A. C. Johnson of Enfield, Ala.

The Robert H. Finch family transferred to Cleveland too suddenly for farewells but there was plenty of time for neighbors to get warm welcome ready for the new owners at 17226 Beverly. It was served up two Mondays ago by Mrs. Gerald Scott of 17190 Beverly, also new to the village last February.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest E. Byrn and Judson, 6, and Ann, 4, hail from Norman, Okla. where he was professor of science at the university. Now he's a research chemist for MacDermid, Inc. and an amateur magician on the side.

The Scotts and Linda, 17, Gerald, 10, and Michael, 7, come from Pontiac. She is with Rapistap of Detroit.

Both the Robert Crolys of Grand Rapids and the Dick Browns of Mt. Pleasant were here for the farewell party the Ernest Croly of Locherie gave for their daughter's family. They were also guests to Judith, 7, a James, christened Sept. 10 at the first Methodist Church.

After seeing the Carson James off to Seattle, Wash. where he will be employed by Boeing aircraft, the Ernest Crolys drove to Gun Lake for a week's vacation with the Grover Browns of West Rutland.

"Only the ceremony was unchanged," said William E. Long after seeing his son graduate from the Great Lakes III boot camp where he once trained. Young Bill spent 14 days leave on Devonshire before reporting at Portsmouth, Va. today.

Wilde was really wild last week. It was Harry Grammer of Warlick who summured at Mullet Lake with his wife and five boys. Brother Charles Grammer was right here (cheered on by his wife, three boys and one girl) making half leaders in a match that won him the Birmingham Country Club trophy.

The J. C. Stuarts of Buckingham saved a week in September for a final visit to Torch Lake.

The John Cates drove to Chicago and Milwaukee for a few days' visit after returning their son to St. Joseph's College, Ind. Her mother, Mrs. L. R. Dryden of Winter Park, Fla., is visiting Smallwood.

Mrs. Peter Mortenson, Jr. of Kirtland invited to a miscellaneous shower last Thursday honoring a close friend and future bride from Rochester, Minn.

Mrs. James B. Shank of Warwick returned from a week-end in Culver, Ind. to complete details of the birthday luncheon she is giving today in honor of her mother's 74 year anniversary. Twelve friends are in on the surprise party for Mrs. Carl Brown of Detroit.

The John A. Backoff's houseguests on Birwood for two weeks recently were former villagers, the junior William Krepelke of Carmichael, Calif.

Mrs. Elv Hieck of Arlington says that "civiles" look great on her son Robert B. Hall after four years in Army uniform. He's sports them on the Ferris campus now. Brother Stephen Hall attends MSU.

Seven couples are making their first visit to the Lawrence Muma's Beverl, "back home before going on" to the Birmingham Country Club Saturday night. A get-acquainted cocktail hour there heralds the Riverside Dance Club's opener, "Hail Hail the Gang's All Here."

The Kenneth Ackermans and their two children drove up from Columbus, Ohio, to spend last weekend with the Ralph Shroders of Beverly Road.

One of the developers of Nottingham Forest, Jack Andrews of Red Oaks Trail, was responsible for the "sit-in-a-sippin'" session on a vacant lot two Sundays ago that brought the new community together for the first time.

The William Paynes of nearby Whiteoaks Trail followed up last Saturday with a house-warming for 99 of their former Bloomfield neighbors. Cocktail chatter over the music of the orchestra, that played for dancing before and after dinner, was mostly about the bright orange and white navy parachute rigged over the patio.

De la 10 January 6, and Miss Laurie favor keeping it there since dad had it waterproofed for the party.

Club Plans Visit To Kensington Park

Riverwoods Garden Club members will explore the nature trails of Kensington Park with them on Tuesday. The group will meet at the home of Mr. Glen Wisely, 24388 Shomost Trail at 10 a.m. They will observe the water fowl in the area and listen to a discussion of shrubs and flowers in the nature house after the field trip.

Luncheon will be served by Mrs. Cleve Nixon, Mrs. Joseph McDougall and Mrs. Glen Wisely.

Miss. Phillip Shald reunited former Sherwood Forest neighbors with a bridge luncheon on 13 Mile Road last Thursday for Mrs. Ed Hamilton, Mrs. Grace Guendon and Mrs. Ann Bree.

The nation's biggest bird sanctuary is located on Wintergreen Lake, and was established by W. K. Kellogg.
