

Birmingham Youth In New Division

FORT CHAFFEE, ARK. (AHTNC)—Army Pvt. Byron L. Warnick, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Warnick, 1291 Bird, Birmingham, Mich., is receiving eight weeks of advanced individual infantry training with the 100th Division at Fort Chaffee, Ark. The training is scheduled to end April 20.

Warnick is being trained in the handling and firing of light and heavy infantry weapons, combat tactics, and other general military subjects.

Kindergarten Round-Ups Begin Here

The Birmingham School System's annual kindergarten round-up for parents whose children will be entering school in the fall is continuing through June.

Purpose of the round-up is to acquaint parents with the kindergarten program.

A special eight-week adult education course, "Preparing Your Child for Kindergarten," is being offered parents Thursday nights at Seaborn High School's Little Theatre. The course began March 29.

SCHOOLS' DATES and times of the Kindergarten Round-Up meetings are as follows:

Adams—May 9-9 a.m.
Baldwin—June 5-9:30 to 11:30 a.m.
Bevely—April 13-9:30 a.m., or 1:30 p.m.
Bloomfield Village—April 12-1 p.m.
Franklin—May 8-1:15 p.m.
Greenfield—May 9-9:15 a.m., or 1:30 p.m.
Meadowlake (meeting at Walnut Lake)—May 7-9:30 a.m.
Midvale—April 9-10 a.m.
Pomphrey (to be announced) —April 17-9:30 a.m., or 1:30 p.m.
Quarton—May 25—Time to be announced.
Valley Woods—May 2-10:00 a.m.
Westchase (meeting at Valley Woods)—April 15-10:00 a.m.
Walnut Lake—May 7-1:00 p.m.

Each student will give a short account of his reactions to the visited country and its peoples then discuss or answer questions about any subject suggested by the audience.

THE AMERICAN FIELD Service Club of Bloomfield High is having a baked goods and coffee sale before the meeting to earn funds to bring another student here next year. The AFS movie show may be shown if time is available.

Four scholarships totalling $2500 will be offered by the Optimist International in their annual Boy's Oratorical Contest, according to Wayne McDonnell, program chairman for the Optimist Club of Southfield.

The local competition in which seven boys from Southfield schools are entered, will be held on April 5th, at 6:30 p.m. at the North Congregational Church, 26275 Northwestern.

Winners of local contests will compete at district level. Regional winners will be selected. The winners of the regional sets will then compete in the final contest at the national level. A $1000 scholarship and three $500 scholarships will be awarded to the winners.

ANY BOY UNDER 16 may compete. The boys must prepare their own five minute speeches on the subject "The Creative Force of Optimism" and deliver them from memory.

Foreign Students Program Slated By Hills High PTO

The Bloomfield Hills High School PTO will feature a panel of exchange students at their meeting at 7:30 p.m. Monday.

The panel will include three foreign students who are now studying at Bloomfield Hills High School and three local students who have been to other countries on the foreign exchange program and have returned to their studies here.

Of the foreign students, Edmundo Daudt Da Veiga of Brazil is here under the auspices of the American Field Service; Carola Wilden of West Berlin and Yvonne Van de Looy of the Netherlands are sponsored by the Council of Churches.

LOCAL STUDENTS participating on the panel include Meredith Flaxton, American Field Service student to Spain last summer; Carey Clagne, also a student in Spain; and Kay Van der Meer who went to West Berlin, Germany—both of the latter under the sponsorship of the Council of Churches.

Each student will give a short account of his reactions to the visited country and its peoples then discuss or answer questions about any subject suggested by the audience.

THE AMERICAN FIELD Service Club of Bloomfield High is having a baked goods and coffee sale before the meeting to earn funds to bring another student here next year. The AFS movie show may be shown if time is available.
