Pancake Supper, Fashion Show Highlight Village Social Scene

Excitement is rising in the village, with activity reaching out in every direction, from pancakes to pyrotechnics.

Mrs. Hard

Final details for the PTA Franklin Spring Fancy are blossoming with the event set for this Saturday in the vicinity of Franklin School.

Another bright spot is the fifth annual pancake supper, scheduled for April 13 by the Boy Scouts of Troop 1011.

The traditional Lenten event will take place at the Franklin Community Church, from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. with about 55 alert young waiters on deck to bring service and syrup with a smile. Expertly organized by "maitre de" Norman Krieger, who has had plenty of experience over the years in keeping lines of hungry families moving past the griddle, the pancake supper will probably be a sell-out according to ticket chairman, Allen Stokke.

hall by patrols under the direction of Scoutmaster Wilkie E. White and his staff, including Frank Gadd, Tom Tashley and Stokke.

Franklin Players have switched their practicing to the actual site of their April 12, 13 and 14 production, "Ladies of the Jury" will be presented in the big barn theatre on 12 Mile just west of Orchard Lake Road.

Still another harbinger of the season is the Monday meeting of the Franklin branch WNFCA. Following a noon luncheon at the Franklin Community Church, William Hopkins will talk on "Conservation" to the women of the community—who have fleecing green thumbs, now that spring is here.

The speakers table will be decorated by Mrs. Roy Nelson.

And, just to prove how anxious Franklin is to have summer arrive—Dave Schiller of Lake Hills Drive put on a $7500 fireworks display last Saturday.

Volunteer Fire Department, he set off a gay bombardment of pyrotechnics in the field near his home.

Beside neighbors, who couldn't believe their ears, flooded police and fire phones with calls.

SPRING ALSO brings waves of collegians home. Last week MSU students revelled in balmy weather, joyously airing the family convertible for a few short days.

Home from Purdue, John Zierer of Senec was in his own happy cloud in a bright yellow automotive Sprite that popped up everywhere.

This weekend U of M people will shed their books and head homeward to the hills.

AFS exchange student, "daughter" with the Thomas Dudsons of 14 Mile Road is taking the Kingswood recess with a trip to Washington, D. C. to visit an aunt. Her American sister, Angela, also a senior at Kingswood, is having a Palm Springs holiday with friends.
