

It's Back to Work As Rushing Ends

They've rushed the season away in Ann Arbor. In other words, sorority rushing is all over. The hectic days of teas, parties, smiling faces and tired feet are finished. Now the girls can get back to their books and boys. Decisions were made, bids were submitted (did you know they use an electronic computer machine?) and the young ladies have been through their emotional pledge ceremonies.

Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills girls have gained prominent spots on the lists which have just been released.

Joyce McCracken and Linda Williams have pledged Alpha Delta Pi. Nancy Chinn, Joan Guarniere, Norma Harvey, Laurie Leitch, Alice Wessels, Mary Barr and Patricia Gilchrist went Alpha Phi.

Collegiate Sorosis claimed Kathleen Farrell, Julie Fitzgerald and Joyce Holmes from our area. Karen Clark chose Sigma Kappa, and Frances Parr Alpha Xi Delta. Pi Beta Phi won Marjorie Stettbacher and Delta Gamma has Jacqueline Pelta and Joanne Maurer.

Wendy Addison, Kaye Clohaet, Charlene Olson and Elizabeth Quick are wearing Chi Omega pledge pins, while Ilene Czarnecki and Vicki Osborn, Phi Mu. Ruth Miley is now pledged to Alpha Epsilon Phi and Kappa Alpha Theta pledged Gail A. Hawkins. Alpha Chi Omega was chosen by Judith Austin, Jane Layle, Judith Rockwell, Carol Szydram and Bette Blunt.
