

Getting a Head Start on Summer

Back in town this week sporting enviable tans are (from left) Mrs. Roger P. Craton, of Ashover Drive, Birmingham; her sister, Mrs. Robert S. Raisch, of Lathrup, and Mrs. Alan T. Pearce of Linden Lane, Birmingham. They had adjoining cabanas at the Breakers in Palm Beach, where all three vacationed for several weeks.

Karen V. Griffin Engaged to Wed

Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Griffin, of 6911 Sandalwood, Birmingham, announce the engagement of their daughter, Karen Virginia, to William James Aitchison, son of Mrs. Doris Aitchison, of Detroit. The couple has set Sept. 15 as the date of their wedding, which will take place in Grace Lutheran Church, Detroit.

A survey conducted by Michigan State University indicates that a majority of families do not use a formal food budget. Most women included in the survey shopped first and then made up menus from available food stocks.

By NORMA WHOLIHAN Beverly Correspondent

VALLEY WOODS
The Valley Woods WNFGA will hold a business meeting and election of officers at noon in the Birmingham Room of Demery's Department Store. At 1 p.m. a program featuring Steuben Glass, sterling table settings and flower arrangements will be given by the staff of the Charles W. Warren Company of Detroit. Members may bring guests.

Mrs. Sterling Named Chairman

Hostesses will be Mrs. Harry Klumshyn, Mrs. Robert Foley, Mrs. Robert Y. Wholihan Goulder, Mrs. John Kelber, Mrs. Frank Neward and Mrs. James Severy.

THE BEVERLYS
Michael Carley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Carley of Beechwood, an explorer scout from Troop 1026, was honored along with other explorer scouts at an all-day program sponsored by the Admiral Leon Jacobi D.S.N.R. This is part of the eagle recognition program. Mike toured the Broadhead Naval Armory in Detroit finishing up at a dinner at the Sheraton-Cadillac where movie star James Stewart was the speaker for the evening. Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Giffert of Norchester have been transferred to New York and have some busy weeks ahead of them making plans and thinking about new schools for daughter Kiela, a sophomore at Groves, and son Roger, a student at Beverly. Mrs. Giffert was the guest of honor at a luncheon given March 30 by Mrs. William O'Rourke at her home on Hillcrest.
