

Local Family Makes Friends Of Visiting Burmese Students

BRAES put with Bloomfield West. Learning about different countries as a class assignment became a family fun-type project for the Alec Taylors of Westmoor Road, Patty, 11, and a 6th grader at Walnut Lake School, decided to study about Burma because her father had colored pictures and lots of reference material and knowledge, acquired while attached to CBI—A film unit of the British Army.

After a family conference, it was decided that they would write to the University of Michigan and Michigan State and find out whether there were any Burmese students registered and if they would be interested in joining the Taylor's as their guests.

Late in February, Aung S. Myint, Maung S. Win and Khin M. Yin came from Michigan State. Mya Han has also been a family guest. All four young people are

NORTH ADAMS

W. Orchard Hill Residents Return from European Trip

NORTH ADAMS The A. W. Holcombs of W. Orchard Hill Drive arrived back in the U.S. laden down with their ski equipment, souvenirs and memories for a life time. They joined the Cussa, a Central Ski Association, on a chartered flight to Europe, accompanied by friends. After a few days of skiing on the breath-taking mountain slopes in Switzerland they left the tour to venture on their own. While in Switzerland they visited quaint Swiss villages along the way to Italy. An Italian car was rented so they could journey through the little back roads to old ruins of castles and forts and to stop in the picturesque fishing villages. On their itinerary were such fabulous places as the Italian Riviera, Monto Carlo in Monaco, the Mediterranean coastline before stopping for four days in an out of the way Italian village ski resort. They also visited Ter-nio, Sestriere, Florence and toured the Colosseum and the Catacombs in old Rome. Amsterdam, Holland was one of the last stops on their trip. There they traveled by boat on a tour of the canals and dikes. Along the way through the different countries they would re-join their friends, Dr. and Mrs. Paul T. Lahti of Birmingham, the B. F. Chamberlains, the James Thorburns and the Marlin Hemphills of Royal Oak, for dinners and breakfasts.
